Local Histories

Franklin Garrett, Atlanta and Environs, A Chronicle of its People and Events (New York, NY: Lewis Publishing Co., 1954):

Page 176: Joseph Howard Hines, M.D. (family sketch):

By a previous marriage, Dr. Hines was the father of a daughter, Mrs. Linton Upshaw, of Houston, Texas, and a son, Dr. John Hines of Roswell, Georgia.

Although beginning his career as an educator, Preston Carl Upshaw early joined the Retail Credit Company, a key firm among Atlanta's business organizations, whose organization for obtaining credit and character reports is of international scope. He is vice president, director and operating manager of this firm, and vice president and director of two of its subsidiary corporations.

A native of Loganville, Georgia, Mr. Upshaw was born July 28, 1902 and is a son of Preston Calhoun and Lena (Francis) Upshaw, both of whom are now deceased. He is a graduate of the University of Georgia's School of Business Administration in the class of 1922. For two years after graduation, he was instructor in the School of Commerce of the University of Georgia.

In 1924, Mr. Upshaw joined the Retail Credit Company, Inc., and after several months' special training he was made an instructor in the firm's Managerial Training School. He served in various assignments on methods and procedures and in various home office staff capacities. In 1932, he was promoted to assistant vice president in the sales department, and four years later was sent to Cincinnati, Ohio as division manager for the firm in that city. He became division manager in Boston, Massachusetts in 1940. Returning to Atlanta in 1943, Mr. Upshaw assumed the responsibilities of associate operating manager. He was elected vice president in 1945; became vice president and operating manager in 1946; and in 1950 was elected a director of the firm. Mr. Upshaw is also a vice president and director responsible for the operation of two subsidiary corporations: the Retailers Commercial Agency, Inc., and the Credit Bureau, Inc.

Mr. Upshaw's fraternities are Beta Gamma Sigma, Alpha Kappa Psi, Sigma Upsilon and Phi Kappa Phi. He is a member of the Kiwanis Club and the Capital City Club in his own city.

In Atlanta on January 20, 1927, Preston Carl Upshaw married Sophie Daves Wright, adopted daughter of the late Arminius Wright, her maternal uncle. Her natural parents were Joel Thomas Daves and Sophie (Wright) Daves, now deceased. Mr. and Mrs. Upshaw, who reside at 1671 West Paces Ferry Road, Northwest, are the parents of two children: 1. Sophie Anne, born February 18, 1929. 2. Preston Carl, Jr., who was born April 2, 1936. Mrs. Sophie (Wright) Upshaw is a communicant of the First Presbyterian Church and Preston Carl Upshaw, Jr., is a member of the Trinity Presbyterian Church, both of Atlanta.
