

First Generation

1. Jeremiah Upshaw was born before 1655 in England?. He lived in Gloucester Co, Virginia from 1667 to 1672. He died before 1700 at the age of 45 in Gloucester? Co, Virginia. Jeremiah was buried at an unknown cemetery in Gloucester? Co, Virginia.

DOCUMENTATION & NOTES:

1. 1655 (prior): Birth date approximated from calculating that his son William was of majority age in 1697 when he was a landowner in Gloucester Co, Virginia; William would have been born no later than 1677 & it is reasonable that Jeremiah, father of William, was about 20 years old at his birth, meaning he would have been born before 1655.

2. 1661, 28 July: Date of the christening record of a "Richard Upshot", male, at Wotton, Surry County, England, whose father was Jeremiah Upshot (sic). (Source: www.familysearch.org, "England Births and Christenings, 1538-1975.") Note that the given name Richard was used in the early generations of the Upshaw family in America; note also that Arthur, the progenitor of the Upshur family in America and supposed brother of the non-existent Abel, appears in the early records here as Arthur Upshott, later changed to Upshur. It is unfortunate that the name of the mother of this Richard Upshot was not given; if it were Cordelia, we would be on track.

3. 1667, Apr 10: Virginia Land Patent Book 6, page 74: Jno. Benson & Jno. Waller, 423 acres in Ware Parish, Gloster (sic) Co., 10 April 1667. Beg. at Mr. Talifro, along Wm. Peach, to Xtopher. Grinaway's land, to Edward Teale's line near the Hollybush Pond & c.

Transportation of 9 persons: Eliz. Higgenson, Wm. Hughes, Wm. Johnson, Mary Blury, JEREMIAH UPSHAW, Jno. Tilson, Tho. Stephens, Robt. Smith, Rebecca Toppin (or Tappin).

4. 1672, Oct 7: Virginia Land Patent Book 6, page 435: Col. Jno. Blake, 200 acres, Nansimond (sic) Co., adjoining William Eson, 7 Oct 1672.

Transportation of 4 persons: Mary Blenly, JEREMY UPSHAW, John Tilson, Tho. Stevens. (Note: All four of these persons are also named in the 1667 Patent; see note #1). These land patents were probably fraudulently awarded for the transport of Jeremiah Upshaw and the other three persons twice reported.

RESEARCH NOTES:

1. There is NO record found of the supposed progenitor of the Upshaw family, "Abel" Upshaw, although many references are found to "Arthur" Upshott/Upshur, who was the proven progenitor of the "Upshur" family of Accomac Co, VA. See John Andrews Upshur, "Upshur Family in Virginia" (Lynchburg, VA: Warwick House Publishing, 1993, Second Edition), page 3-5.

Furthermore, quoted from an original letter from Mr. John A. Upshur to Mrs. Grace E. Jared, dated 4 Nov 1961: "It is tradition - - I repeat - - TRADITION - that Arthur Upshur I had a brother Abel. Abel Upshur was NOT, repeat NOT, included in Capt. William Stone's list of headrights. The original document is right here in the old ORIGINAL court house records. Only Arthur UPSHOTT is listed. I know all about Capt. Stone and have personally seen every headright he ever received." Mr. John A.

Upshaw was the highly respected researcher and author of the award winning and highly respected book, "Upshur Family in Virginia" and was, as is obvious, vehemently opposed to the carrying forward of this non-factual "tradition." He further states in the above cited letter that "Genealogy without proof is not worth the paper it is written on ... "

2. Repeating the "traditional story" is Grace Jared, "They Met Challenges ... With Memoirs" (see UFJ, Vol. 1, page 48): "The tradition is that the Upshaws (sic) and Upshur families were descendants of two brothers, Abel Upsher, age 16 years, and Arthur Upsher, 14 years, who came from England to America in 1640. Even our English Upsher cousins accept this tradition. But they say they are not of Huguenot descent. The Upshurs of Virginia have proof that their ancestor was the Arthur Upsher above, but the Upshaw family have never proved that Abel, his [supposed] brother, was the Upshaw progenitor, but he tradition goes back 150 or 200 years."

Furthermore, "The History of the Upshaws, Lafons, Jacksons and Youngs" (Kentucky Historical Society Register, vol. IV, 1904 (see UFJ, Vol. 6, page 65) repeats the story: "Their names [Abel and Arthur Upcher] are entered on Capt. Stone's List of Headrights of ship in the year 1640. Capt. Stone paid the passage money of the youths." This account is not only non-factual, but untrue, as there is definitely no one named Abel Upcher (or Arthur Upcher, for that matter) on the 1640 list. The actual record, of which I have a photocopy, from "Northampton Co., Virginia Orders, Deeds, Wills & etc., No. 2, 1640-1645", page 28 (which contains Captain William Stone's list of headrights in 1640) contains only the name of Arthur Upshott (sic) and no "Abel" Upshott, or any other surname, is listed. Essex County, home of William Upshaw, Capt., Gent., was created in 1692 from Old Rappahannock and their earliest records are extant, although no record of the name of any "Abel" Upshaw/Upshott/Upcher/etc. has ever been located in early Essex County, or anywhere else in the vicinity. I sincerely invite any other evidence pro or con.

3. There are two mentions in early Virginia records of a "Jeremiah Upshaw", in 1667 & 1672 in the Virginia Land Patents (see notes 1 & 2 above), indicating there was such an actual person, who could have been the correct age to be William Upshaw's father.

4. William Upshaw, in his will, probated in 1720 Essex County, names his first (supposedly eldest) son as "Jeremiah", which is further circumstantial evidence that William's father was Jeremiah; William named no son "Abel".

5. There is a christening record of a "Richard Upshot", male, christening date: 28 July 1661 at Wotton, Surry County, England, whose father was Jeremiah Upshot. (Source: www.familysearch.org, "England Births and Christenings, 1538-1975." The given name Richard was used in the early generations of the Upshaw family in America; note also that Arthur, the progenitor of the Upshur family in America and supposed brother of the non-existent Abel, appears in the early records here as Arthur Upshott. It is unfortunate that the name of the mother of this Richard Upshot was given; if it were Cordelia, we would be on track.

Jeremiah Upshaw and Cordelia Waring? were married circa 1674 in Gloucester? Co, Virginia?.

Cordelia Waring? was born before 1655 in England?. She lived in King & Queen Co, Virginia in 1704. She was living on 16 Dec 1716 in King & Queen Co, Virginia. Cordelia died after 16 Dec 1716 at the age of 61 in King & Queen? Co, Virginia. She was buried at an unknown cemetery in King & Queen? Co, Virginia.

DOCUMENTATION & NOTES:

1. 1655 (prior): Birth date approximated from calculating that her son William was of majority age in 1697 when he was a landowner in Gloucester Co, Virginia; William would've been born no later than 1677 & it is reasonable that Cordelia, mother of William, was about 20 years old at his birth, meaning she would've been born before 1655.
2. 1704; Virginia Quit Rent Roll: King & Queen Co: "Martin, Cordelia, Widdo, 200 acres". (These were lists of landowners who paid "rent" to the King of England) (Annie Laurie Wright Smith, The Quit Rents of Virginia, 1704" (Baltimore, MD: Genealogical Publishing Co, 1980), page 59; the only other "Martin" in King & Queen Co. in the 1704 Rent Roll was Elizabeth Martin, 400 acres.
3. 1716, Dec 16: "Cordelia Martin" was mentioned as "mother" in the will of William Upshaw, Essex Co, VA; she was living at this time. This indicates that his mother "Cordelia", had been widowed by Jeremiah Upshaw, had remarried to (given name unknown) Martin, and also widowed by him, all prior to 1704 when she was named as "Cordelia Martin" in the Quit Rent Roll for King & Queen Co.

COMMENTS:

1. I have found no other mention of "Cordelia Upshaw", "Cordelia Martin", or "Cordelia (any surname)" in any of the Gloucester or Essex Co, Va, records I have searched. The given name of her second husband, _____ Martin, is not known to me. "Cordelia Martin (Widdo)" is listed in the 1704 Rent Rolls for King & Queen Co, VA, and early King & Queen Co. records need to be searched.

2. Several Upshaw researchers believe that Cordelia's maiden name may have been "Waring", although this is totally unsubstantiated, as far as I know.

There are many "Waring" families in early Essex Co, VA, and there are Upshaw family connections with them, so that might be worth exploring. There are no "Waring" or "Martin" families mentioned in the "Vestry Book of Petsworth Parish, Gloucester County, Virginia 1677-1793", by C.G. Chamberlayne, and no reference to any "Cordelia" is found in the index of this book.

3. Virginia Historical Index (by E.G. Swem) only gives one reference to "Cordelia Martin" which is to the same 1704 Rent Roll for King & Queen Co, VA (printed in the Virginia Magazine of History & Biography, Vol. 32 (1924), page 152).

4. C.G. Chamberlayne, "The Vestry Book of Stratton Major Parish, King and Queen County, Virginia" (Richmond, VA: The Library Board, 1931): No Martin references.

5. Clayton Torrence, "Virginia Wills and Administrations 1632-1800" (Baltimore, MD: Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 1972): This shows no "Waring" testator who could be of the proper age to have been her father. The earliest Waring testator is "Thos. Waring", 1754 Essex Co.

6. There is no mention of "Cordelia" (any surname) in "England and Wales Marriages 1530-1906".

SECONDARY SOURCES:

1. The progenitor of the Upshaw family in Essex County, Virginia, "William Upshaw, Gent., planter," was living in Petsworth Parish, Gloucester County, Virginia, in 1699, when, on January 9th of that year, he purchased for a consideration of one hundred pounds sterling, from Harry Beverly, Gent., and Elizabeth, his wife, of the County of Middlesex, 1017 acres of land in Essex County, being part of a dividend of land granted to his father, Major Robert Beverly, deceased, situated on "Gilson's Maine Run", and adjoining the lines of Major Morris, Thomas Button, deceased, John Doughty and Thomas Sthreshley. The witnesses were James Reynolds, John Saunders, Thomas Sthreshley and John Doughty. (Essex Deed & Will Book 10, pp. 46-47). Doughty and Reynolds also bought land from Beverly at this date, and William Upshaw was one of the witnesses to the conveyances.

On August 7, 1703, Upshaw conveyed 400 acres of this land to Charles Waller, of Petsworth Parish, Gloucester County, "cooper." James and Sarah Reynolds, of the aforesaid parish and county, and Will. Miller witnessed this transaction. (Source: William and Mary College Quarterly; 2nd series, Vol 18, no. 1; January 1938, "The Upshaw Family of Essex", by Lenora Higginbotham Sweeny, page 64-68).

2. William Upshaw was born ca. 1666 and his will was probated 20 May 1720, Essex Co., Va. He was living in Gloucester Co., Va., in 1699.

The name of his first wife is unknown. He married second, Hannah Forrest, widow of James Carber. She was born ca. 1679 and died ca. 1763 in Essex County, Va. Her will was made 1 Sept. 1762 in Essex Co., Va.

"Tyler's Quarterly", Vol. XIV, page 125 states, "Mrs. P.W. Hiden who has given so much of her valuable time to research work and the restoration of the early records of Virginia says in her admirable article on the Tandy family that it seems evident that Hannah, wife of William Upshaw, and Susanna, wife of Charles Waller, were sisters. Their maiden name was almost certainly Forrest, since that name appears so frequently among their descendants. The Roanes, Reynolds, Crittendens, Upshaws and Wallers were all Gloucester people who between 1700-1717 joined other Gloucester families who had gone north into Essex Co., Va."

"We find several persons by the name of Forrest living in Gloucester Co., Va., in the 17th century, among whom were Henry Forrest who patented 700 acres in 1650 and Edmund and John Forrest who received grants of land from the crown in 1684."

"Hannah Forrest Carber Upshaw was left a widow for the second time when her oldest child was 16 years of age. She lived to see her sons zealous churchmen and prominent in civic and military affairs and her daughters married to prominent men of Essex Co., Va. She purchased and patented land and continued to manage the estate until her death, 15 September 1729 she assigned her son, Jeremiah Upshaw, all her right and title to the 220 acres of land which she bought of Robert Smith lying between the main swamp f Piscataway and Hoskins Creeks, "being the land whereon the said Jeremiah now dwells." This seems to be a gift of exchange for Jeremiah Upshaw in return deeds to his mother for consideration of 10 pounds, "all the plantation whereon Hannah Upshaw dweleth, situated and being in the Parish of South Farnham, Essex County, part of a tract of land my father Captain William Upshaw purchased from Harry Beverley, Esq,"

Will of William Upshaw. Written and proved by William Upshaw and proved 17 May 1720, Essex Co., Va. James Griffing and Thomas Sthreshley, Jr. were witnesses.

At the same court Thomas Sthreshley, Jr. was appointed Surveyor of the highways in the lace of Captain William Upshaw, Gent.

The inventory of the estate of Capt. William Upshaw covering 9 pages of the record book, was returned to Essex Court by the appraisers, James Reynolds, Jr.; Charles Waller and Henry Tandy, 21 June 1720. Among other items in the inventory is a parcel of old books some of which had been bequeathed to him by the will of his friend, Captain Leonard Tarrant, proved in Essex 16 July 1718, who names as his executors, "my loving friends, Paul Micou and William Upshaw." to whom he leaves my books.

COMMENTS:

1. Although William Upshaw has been titled "Captain" in several previous articles and publications, I have found no case of this title being used in original records; neither do I find where he is a captain of militis, which is usually the origin of this title.
2. William Upshaw was living in Petsworth Parish, Gloucester Co, VA, in 1697 and first bought land in Essex Co, VA, in 1699 although he still owned land in Gloucester Co. in 1704/5. He was active in the Church in Petsworth Parish, Gloucester Co, until 1714, when he apparently moved to Essex Co.
3. Notes concerning the possible origins of William Upshaw of Gloucester & Essex counties, Virginia:
4. Various information and misinformation has been disseminated regarding the possible origins of William Upshaw of Gloucester and Essex Counties, Virginia. These legendary accounts have been published and republished since at least 1896, which account was first printed in the "Kentucky Historical Society Register" in 1906 (Vol 4 #10), until as recently as 1996 in the "Kentucky Explorer", March 1996 issue. The legend seems to have originated within the research of Thomas Teackle Upshur II, who printed "A Sketch of the Upshur Family" in 1887 (Quinby Papers, Alderman Library, University of Virginia).

William Upshaw is the proven progenitor of all the Upshaw family in the United States and descent from him can usually be reasonably well documented. The first record of this William is on 28 October 1697, when Gawin Corbin received a land patent for 61 acres in Petso(sic) Parish, adjoining Wm. Upshaw, Mr. John Grimes, crossing Noxes (Knox?) Swamp, to Dragon Rode (sic) (Virginia Land Patent Book 9, page 90). This proves that William Upshaw was a resident of Gloucester County as early as 1697.

The last record of William Upshaw is in 1720 Essex County, Virginia, when his will was proven (Essex County, Virginia, Will Book 3, page 143). In the interim from 1697 to 1720, there is much documentary evidence that he moved from Gloucester to Essex County.

The legendary account of the ancestry of William Upshaw is based on two supposed brothers, Abel and Arthur Upshur, coming from Essex County, England to the Eastern Shore of Virginia in 1640 and William Upshaw is supposedly descended from the brother Abel. The Upshur family in America descends from Arthur, whose name first appears as "Upshott" and he is well documented in early Virginia records. However, contrary to the legendary story, the name of Abel Upshott/Upshur/Upshaw does NOT appear in any record yet examined. There is no factual record of there being any such person as Abel Upshaw.

There is, however, jurisdictional factual evidence to support the fact that Jeremiah Upshaw was the father of William Upshaw. On 10 April 1667, Jno. Benson and Jno. Waller received a patent for 423 acres in Ware Parish, Gloucester County, Virginia, for the transport of 9 persons, which included "Jeremiah Upshaw" (Patent Book 6 page 74). On 7 October 1672, Col. Jno. Blake received 200 acres in Nansemond County, Virginia, for the transport of 4 persons, including "Jeremy Upshaw" (Patent Book 6 page 435).

Furthermore, William Upshaw, in his will proven in 1720 in Essex County, Virginia, names his first (supposedly eldest) son as "Jeremiah", which is further circumstantial evidence that William's father was Jeremiah. The custom was, in that time, for the first born son to be named for the father's father.

The "Upshur Family in Virginia", second edition, by Robert Irving Upshur and Thomas Teackle Upshur IV, 1993, pages 3-5, Chapter I "The Immigrants" gives a balanced comparison of the legendary Abel Upcher and the documented Jeremiah Upshaw.

The salient points are these:

1. There is no documentation of any person named Abel Upshott/Upcher/Upshaw.
2. There is factual documentation of Jeremiah Upshaw.
3. There is documentation of Jeremiah Upshaw in the Gloucester County, Virginia area in 1667 and 1672, where William was first documented in 1697.

4. Jeremiah was the first named and supposedly eldest son of William as given in William's will. It was a custom in that time to name the first born son after the husband's father.

The preponderance of the evidence indicates that the documented Jeremiah Upshaw is the father of William and not the undocumented Abel of tradition. Gloucester County, Virginia, records were destroyed in 1820 and those records are not extant, so scant evidence must be gleaned from other sources.

Additional research includes searching for any mention of Jeremiah and Cordelia Upshaw in English records. Cordelia, William's mother, was named as "Cordelia Martin" in William's will in 1716. A "Cordelia Martin, Widd." is listed in the 1704 Quit Rent Rolls of King and Queen County, which shows she had evidently been widowed by Jeremiah Upshaw and had then married a "Martin" and been widowed by him, all prior to 1704. This would indicate that Jeremiah had died prior to 1704. Research is needed among early Virginia records to locate any mention of "Cordelia".

5. There is no mention of "William Upshaw" in "England and Wales Christening Records 1530-1906" or in "England and Wales Marriages 1530-1906".

6. It should be noted that William Upshaw, was alive as late as 9 February when the record is noted "Received of William Upshaw full Satisfaction for all dues and demands due from him to my wife Mary as he Marrying my wives Mother the Widdow and Executrix of my wives father James Carber, Deceast and do hereby Acquitt and Discharge him the said Upshaw from all Gifts or Legesays which are or may hereafter become due to me or my wife Mary by any of the ways aforesaid. Witness our hands and seals this Ninth day of February, 1718.

(signed) James Rennolds Junr., Thomas Cooper Dickinson (see note below), Thomas Sthreshley Junr., Mary (N her mark) Dickinson. Recorded in Essex Court, March 20, 1749." (Essex County Will Book 8 page 302)

His son, William Upshaw Jr., was born circa 1713. was married to Tamazen Sthreshley between 1733 and 1735, indicating that he was of majority age at that time. All deeds and other records of "William Upshaw" prior to 1720 would pertain to William Upshaw, Sr., who died between 1718 and 1720.

William Upshaw Sr. "Gent." and Susannah(?) (maiden name unknown) were married circa 1696 in Gloucester? Co, Virginia. Susannah(?) (maiden name unknown) was born circa 1676 in Gloucester? Co, Virginia. She died circa 1700 at the age of 24 in Gloucester Co, Virginia. She was buried at an unknown cemetery in Gloucester Co, Virginia.

DOCUMENTATION & NOTES:

1. No evidence has ever been found as to the name of the first wife of William Upshaw. However, as he named one of his two daughters by his first wife Cordelia, obviously after his mother, it is reasonable to think that the other daughter who was named Susannah may have been named after her mother (and William's first wife), Susannah.

William Upshaw and Susannah(?) (maiden name unknown) had the following children:

- +3 i. Cordelia Upshaw, born ca 1698, Gloucester Co, Virginia; married Thomas Hipkins Sr., bef 1716, Essex? Co, Virginia; died 1771, Essex Co, Virginia.
- +4 ii. Susannah Upshaw, born bef 1700, Gloucester Co, Virginia; married William Brooking, bef 1716, Gloucester? Co, Virginia; died Gloucester? Co, Virginia.

William Upshaw Sr. "Gent." and Hannah Forrest? were married circa 1702 in Gloucester or Essex Co, Virginia.

Hannah Forrest? was born circa 1679. She died circa 1763 at the age of 84 in Essex Co, Virginia. She was buried at an unknown cemetery in Essex Co, Virginia.

SECONDARY SOURCES:

1. The date of birth or baptism of Cordelia Upshaw, eldest daughter of Captain William Upshaw, is not known. Records of Essex show that Alexander How stood Godfather to her. She married prior to 1716, Thomas Hipkins, son of John Hipkins of Middlesex County. They were living in Essex on November 10, 1717, for on that date, Thomas Hipkins sat as a member of a Jury for Essex.

June 18, 1716, Captain Leonard Tarrant, "Gent." of St. Anne's Parish, Essex, for 50 pounds transfers to Thomas and Cordelia Hipkins, 202 acres of land situated on Cockleshell Creek, Essex, being part of a tract of 920 acres granted to the said Tarrant, May 28, 1716 (Deeds, Etc., Book 14, page 586).

Thomas Hipkin's will, dated December 9, 1730, was proved in Essex August 17, 1731, by two of the witnesses: Francis Graves and Charles Wortham. He desired that his plantation whereon he resided be divided between his sons, Thomas and Andrew. "I lend to my beloved wife Cordelia, all my estate both real and personal during her widowhood and if she marries the said estate to be divided between my three sons and three daughters." He appoints his brother, James Hipkins, executor. (Will Book 5, page 50).

At a court held for Essex County August 15, 1740, "William Griffin presented a Certificate for taking up a runaway Negroe man slave named Bristol belonging to Mrs. Cordelia Hipkins of this county and made oath that he never had received any satisfaction for the same, which is ordered to be Certified to the General Assembly for Allowance." (Order Book 12, page 72).

Cordelia Hipkins survived her husband forty years, dying in 1771; she also outlived her three sons.

April 10, 1719, William Brooking, of Petsworth Parish, Gloucester County, planter, and Susanna, his wife, deed 230 acres of land on Cockleshell Creek, Essex County, formerly purchased from Leonard Tarrant, "Gent." of St. Anne's Parish, Essex, planter. (Deed Book 16, page 69).

March 10, 1703/4, there was recorded in Essex County Deed and Will Book 11, page 203, a deed from James Reynolds and wife, Susanna, of Petsworth Parish, Gloucester County, to sons, James and Thomas Reynolds, for 1000 acres of land in Essex, to be equally divided between them. One of the witnesses to this deed was Robert Brooking.

In the Vestry Book of Petsworth Parish, Gloucester County, under the year 1721, there is a reference to a "Robt. Brookins." What relation, if any, he was to William and Susanna Brooking is not disclosed. Apparently there was some connection between him and the Upshaw family, as they are constantly found witnessing deeds, etc., from one another, assuming that the Robert Brooking living in St. Stephen's Parish, King & Queen County, on December 1, 1742, is identical with the Robert Brookins, of Gloucester, mentioned above. On December 1, 1742, Robert Brooking, of King & Queen County, bought land in St. Anne's Parish, Essex, from Henry Robinson, "Gent." and Molly, his wife. Richard and Forrest Upshaw were witnesses to this deed. (Deed Book 22, page 432).

In 1750, Robert Brooking, Gent., of St. Stephen's Parish, King & Queen County, purchased from John Maguffey, of Drysdale Parish, King & Queen County, for 1151 pounds of tobacco, 71 acres (except the family burying ground) in Essex, part of a tract of land John Maguffey bought from Edmund Paget, August 13, 1670, and the remainder purchased of Thomas Gouldman, November 1, 1672. Witnesses: John Upshaw, W. Rennolds and Henry Crittenden. (Deed Book 22, page 382).

From the following deed we learn that he married Frances, daughter of Thomas Vivian, Gent.: May 18, 1741, Thomas Vivian, Gent., of King George County, "out of pure natural affection to his Daughter, Frances, wife of Robert Brooking," of St. Stephen's Parish, King & Queen County, deeds to him 220 acres of land in Essex County. (Deed Book 22, page 235).

Jeremiah Upshaw (footnote 6): In "Tyler's Magazine", XVII, 256-257, he is incorrectly given as the son of Arthur Upshur) born probably in Gloucester County, but as far as the records go there is nothing to tell the date. His brother, John, at the death of their mother, acquired the "Large Family Bible", which, if found, would no doubt give the dates of births of all the children of Captain William and Hannah Upshaw. On May 22, 1734, Jeremiah is mentioned as a member of a Grand Jury for Essex County. The same year he received a grant of 240 acres in South Farnham Parish, Essex. The land, which is described as being located "on a branch of Hoskin's Pocoson to a corner of Mr. Upshaw's line", had been granted previously to Margaret McHenry, but became escheated. In 1729, he was married and living neighbor to John Hunt and John Moody. He was a witness to the latter's will, December 10, 1735, and went on his son, John Moody's executor's bond. His will, dated November 18, 1746, was proved in Essex, February 18, 1746/47. He names sons James and William Upshaw; daughter, Hannah Upshaw, and appoints his brothers, Richard and John Upshaw, executors. Witnesses to the will were Sarah Roane, W. Rennolds and Thomas Cooper Dickinson. (Will Book 7, page 490).
2. Jeremiah Upshaw, son of William Upshaw, was born ca. 1704 in Gloucester Co., Va., and died 1746-7 in Essex Co., Va. He married before 1729 to Miss Buckner. His will was probated in Essex Co., Va., Feb. 1746/7. Child of Jeremiah Upshaw and Miss Buckner: James Upshaw, born ca. 1730.

DOCUMENTATION & NOTES:

1. 1746/1747: She probably died prior to 1746/47, as she was not mentioned in the will of her husband Jeremiah Upshaw.

Jeremiah Upshaw and (Female) Buckner had the following children:

- +23 i. Col. James Upshaw Sr., born ca 1730, Essex Co, Virginia; married Suca Jones, 1750-1753, Essex Co, Virginia; died 22 Jul 1806, Caroline Co, Virginia.

- +25 iii. Hannah Upshaw, born ca 1734, Essex Co, Virginia; married Daniel Sullivan Jr., ca 1746, Essex? Co, Virginia.

6. Hannah Upshaw was born circa 1706 in Gloucester or Essex Co, Virginia. She died before 1765 at the age of 59. She was buried at an unknown cemetery.

DOCUMENTATION & NOTES:

1. It is notable that Thomas Jones, in his will of 1738, named his wife "Mary", not "Hannah". Additional research needed.

3. This is problematic as Thomas Jones names his wife to be "Mary", not Hannah. Furthermore, Thomas names five children, not four, in his will. Perhaps this connection between Thomas Jones and Hannah Upshaw is not correct; the connection as given in the secondary sources below include no documentation - what is documentation of this marriage? VIII. Sarah Upshaw, married Colonel William Roane, probably a son of Charles Roane, who came from England to Gloucester County, Virginia. He was a Loyalist of wealth, and after Bacon's death a party of Rebels burned his home.

In the Quit Rent Roll of Gloucester County, 1704, William Roane's name appears as the owner of 500 acres of land. He was living in Petsworth Parish, Gloucester, in 1726, at which date he bought land in Essex County and soon afterward removed to Essex, where he was chosen Vestryman of Farnham Parish and, at some date prior to 1740, was appointed one of the justices fo Essex County. At his death, which occurred near the last of the year 1757, he left a large estate in Essex, King & Queen and Culpeper Counties. His widow, surviving him only a short time, made her will August 11, 1760, which was proved in Essex Court, December 15, 1760, by the witnesses, John Upshaw and Daniel Sullivan, Jr. (Will Book 11, page 287).

Col. William and Sarah (Upshaw) Roane had issue: Thomas, William, John, Mary, Sarah and Lucy Roane. (footnote 20: As Mrs. P.W. Hiden contemplates writing an article on the Roane family, there is given here only sufficient data to show what important offices were held by members of this family and their connection with the Upshaw family). (Mrs. Jared has added a pencil note in her copy: "A letter to Wm. & Mary 1966 brought the information that Mrs. P.W. Hiden, above, did not write any articles [on] the Roane family as so stated").

IV. (fourth child of William & Hannah Upshaw): John Upshaw, born in Essex, July 21, 1715 (footnote #13: "Collections of the Virginia Historical Society", New Series, Vol. 10, p. 373. It is stated in the same volume that John Upshaw was the ancestor of James Upshaw, which is incorrect, unless the writer means his collateral ancestor, in which case he is correct, as John Upshaw was James Upshaw's uncle.) died there, July 23, 1801. He married Mary Lafon, born in Essex, 1744, died 1807. She was a daughter of Nicholas Lafon, said to have been of Huguenot descent, who died in Essex before March 20, 1749 (footnote #14: New York Genealogical & Biographical Record, Vol. XLVI, 103). They were married at some time between October 16, 1750, when John Rennolds was appointed guardian to Hannah, Richard, Mary and Elizabeth Lafon, orphans of Nicholas Lafon (Will Book 8, page 373). and August 21, 1769, when John Upshaw, with the consent of his wife, Mary, sold his share of Nicholas Lafon's estate to John Rennolds, who had intermarried with Elizabeth, widow and relict of Nicholas Lafon. (Deed Book 30, page 281-284).

September 18, 1749, John Upshaw paid 80 pounds to Charles Waller, Gent. of Overwharton Parish, Stafford County, for the remaining 200 acres his father, Captain William Upshaw had deeded to Charles Waller, Sr., in 1703; Elizabeth, wife of Charles Waller, released her right of dower. (Deeds, Etc., 24, page 427).

There is a deed of record in Essex County Deed Book 24, page 374, dated October 17, 1749, by which John Upshaw for "the love and affection I do owe and bear to my God son, Thomas Coleman, son of Robert Spilsbe Coleman, and Sarah, his wife, of the County of King & Queen, conveys to the said

Thomas Coleman one lot no. 74, on the riverside in the Borough or Town of Tappahannock, as by the plan and survey made by Robert Brooke, Gent., Surveyor."

John Upshaw, Gent. of Essex County, planter, September 12, 1746, for 57 pounds, purchased from Lt.-Colonel John Henry, Gent., and Sarah, his wife, of St. Paul's Parish, Hanover, a plantation of 500 acres of land in the Parish of Northam, County of Goochland, beginning at Captain William Winston's corner pointers in the county line dividing Louisa and Goochland counties, part of a tract of 3400 acres granted to John Syme by patent 28 September, 1730, and by him in his last will and testament proved in Hanover Court 5 April, 1739, given to the above named Sarah, his wife. Witnesses to this transaction were David Lyle, William Winston, Robert Depriest and Robert Donald. (Goochland County Deed Book 5).

John Upshaw served Virginia with zeal and distinction through a long series of years and in important stations. In 1742, he was appointed Tobacco Inspector at Hobbs' Hole. (Order Book 13, p. 87). He was one of the Gentlemen Justices of Essex; Churchwarden of South Farnham Parish, in 1764. (Meade: "Old Churches, Ministers and Families of Va.", p. 393).; Sheriff, 1770. From 1758 to 1765, represented Essex County in the House of Burgesses, and was Chairman of the Committee of Safety for Essex County, 1775. He appears as a signer of the "Articles of the Westmoreland Association, drawn by Richard Henry Lee and presented by him to a meeting of restive patriots held at Leedstown, in Westmoreland County, February 27, 1766, which in opposition to the odious Stamp Act, was pledged to use no articles of British importation, and on May 18, 1768, was a signer of the resolution of the Williamsburg Association, which met in the Apollo Room of the old Raleigh Tavern, in that city, and who bound themselves to abstain from the use of proscribed British merchandise, and to promote and encourage industry and frugality, and discourage all luxury and extravagancy." ("Virginia Magazine of History", XXIV, liii, & Hardesty: "Historical & Geographical Encyclopedia", p. 357.)

When the people of Essex County met at the Court House in Tappahannock, Virginia, July 9, 1774, "seriously to consider the present dangers which threaten ruin to American liberty," John Upshaw was chosen Moderator. The fourteenth resolution which was proposed and unanimously agreed to was: "That a subscription be set on foot for raising provisions for the poor of Boston who now suffer by the blocking up of their port, and that Robert Beverly, John Lee, and Muscoe Garnett, in Saint Anne's Parish and Archibald Ritchie and John Upshaw, in the upper part of Southfarnham Parish, and Meriwether Smith and James Edmondson, in the lower part thereof, take in subscriptions for that purpose, etc.; and the before mentioned gentlemen are empowered to charter a vessal to send it to Boston." 5. 1810, 16 February (newspaper account of Dr. William Upshaw duel):
Natchez, February ____ 1810.
On Saturday last a duel was fought on the Louisiana side of the Mississippi opposite Natchez between Capt. Winfield Scott of the U.S. Artil. and Dr. Upshaw, surgeon in the 5th Infantry, in which the former received a severe wound on the pericanium (sic) at the first fire, which for the time ended the affair. The wound of Capt. S. though serious and highly painful is not considered dangerous, the skull being slightly furrowed but not fractured.

The groundwork of the meeting was layed (sic) at New Orleans as far back as last spring, when the parties disputed on the subject of the public character and official conduct of General Wilkinson. Dr. U's continued indisposition and Capt. S's subsequent absence from the army (sic) prevented any correspondence between them on the subject of their differences until December last when Dr. U. replied to a note of Capt. S's that he would prefer charges against him founded on certain disrespectful words used by Capt. S towards Gen. W in Virginia in the fall of 1808, which were accordingly charged as "mutiny", and on certain of Capt. S's company transactions which were charged as "conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman."

An arrest ensued and a General Court Martial was ordered to investigate the case. But before the court took up the subject, another charge was added by the same person, for disrespect and contempt expressed for Gen. W. after the arrest and after Gen. W. had resigned all command.

The trial was long and interesting, in the course of it the accused went into evidence to prove the truth of one of his declarations, to wit: that Gen. W. was a liar and a scoundrel. How far success crowned the attempt the world will in a short time have an opportunity of judging as it is understood the trial will be published. The court acquitted the accused of the charge for mutiny, found him guilty of only a part of the charge in relation to the company transactions, at the same time expressly acquitting him of everything fraudulent and ungentlemanly; and also found him guilty of uttering of Gen. W. the words "traitor, liar and scoundrel" which were pronounced unofficerlike (sic), and sentenced him to be suspended from all military command and emolument, for the space of twelve months.

There was added to the sentence a recommendation to Gen. Hampton to remit 9 months of the suspension; but for reasons which will no doubt be satisfactory when known, the general declined acting on the recommendation.

It was on publication of his sentence that Capt. S. again addressed himself to Dr. U which led to the meeting above described.

7. 1811, 2 Sep: Obituary of Dr. William Upshaw:

Died the day before yesterday in the bloom of life, Dr. William Upshaw, one of the ablest physicians of this city by the event of his knowledge in his profession and by the mildness of his manners. Notwithstanding the rapid progress and the redoubled paroxysms of his disease, he finished his earthly career with that calm and resignation that characterizes the just. His last looks were met by a few friends who surrounded his death bed who to the last moment tendered him their affectionate but ineffectual aid. It is cruel to see a man fall victim to this disease who by his talents and experience would perhaps have contributed to arrest its progress. Dr. Upshaw, after having finished the long and tedious study of medicine in England, had the advantage of having perfected himself in the celebrated University of Montpelier. To a good and solid education was united a liberality and disintereatedness (sic) of character but little known. Not alone to his friends is his memory dear, the remembrance of his good qualities are consecrated by the regrets and tears of the indigent.

1. "The Upshaw Family of Essex", by Lenora Higginbotham Sweeny:

William Upshaw was not of age at his father's death and John Jones was appointed his guardian. (Guardian Book, 1796-1811, p. 94). His will, dated August 9 (sic), 1811, was proved in New Orleans, La., September 18, 1811, and recorded in Essex County, Virginia, February 17, 1812. He mentions his brother, Edwin Upshaw and nephew John Upshaw Waring. The latter testified in Essex Court that his uncle, William Upshaw, died in New Orleans, 31 August 1811. (Essex County Will Book 17, p. 335).

It is possible that he is the "Doctor" Upshaw mentioned in "The Cabells and Their Kin" as having fought a duel in New Orleans with Joseph Megginson Cabell, the outcome of which may not have proved so fortunate to him as the one he fought with Skelton Jones, before leaving Virginia for Louisiana, of which we have the following account from the Richmond Enquirer, of October 23, 1805:

"The meeting between Dr. William Upshaw and Skelton Jones, Esq., both of this city, is stated to have taken place Monday evening, on the Maryland shore. They were prevented by the wind from crossing the Potomac sooner - They fought at 3 yards distance. Mr. Jones is said to have been wounded in the upper part of the head. Dr. Upshaw escaped without any injury."

IX. Margaret Upshaw, youngest daughter of Captain William and Hannah Upshaw, married Samuel Hipkins, son of John Hipkins, whose will was proved in Richmond County, 1717. He was living in Farnham parish, Richmond County, 1733, where, on August 23, of that year, Thomas and Sarah Ship, of Essex County, deed to him 200 acres lying in St. Anne's Parish, Essex County. On April 22, 1734, Samuel Hipkins, then a resident of St. Anne's Parish, Essex, took the oath as Ensign of Captain Mungo Roy's Company of Essex Militia, and on May 19, 1741, he was promoted [to] Lieutenant of Captain Benjamin Winston's Troop of Horse, Essex County Militia. (Order Book 9, page 199, and Order Book 12, page 174). His name appears among the freeholders at a poll taken in an election of Burgesses in Essex County, March 20, 1741; commissioned a Justice of the Peace for Essex, March 15, 1742 and served consecutively until his death in 1764.

May 13, 1743, John Satterwhite, of Caroline County, deeded to Samuel Hipkins, of Essex County, for 25 pounds, one hundred acres of land (excepting burial plot eight feet square), in Essex, on the head of Occupation Swamp, joining the land "where the said Hipkins lives," it being part of a patent formerly granted to Christopher Blackburn. Ann, the wife of John Satterwhite, releases her right of dower. (Deed Book 23, page 12-14).

October 15, 1751, Samuel Hipkins, Gent., "pursuant to a Military Commission from under the land of Lewis Burwell, Esqr., President of the Council of Virginia appointing him Captain of a Troop of Horse in this County took the oaths according to Law and subscribed the Test." (Order Book 17, page 108). In 1755, James Rennolds, Gent., was Cornet in "Capt. Samuel Hipkins' Company of soldiers." (Order Book 21, page 116).

When a Court was held for Essex, May 17, 1757, Colonel William Roane, Major Samuel Hipkins and Captain Paul Micou, presented their several commissions whereupon they took the oaths prescribed by the Act of Parliament and subscribed the tests, etc. (Order book 21, page 363). At some date later he was commissioned Colonel of Essex County Militia.

At a Court held at Captain Forrest Upshaw's house in Essex County, May 16, 1758, "Samuel Hipkins, Gent., is appointed to take a list of Tithables in the Upper Precinct of St. Anne's Parish for the present year." (Order Book 29, page 176).

December 28, 1762, he corroborated a deed of gift of a slave which he had given his son, Richard Hipkins, at the time of his marriage. (Deed Book 29, page 159). In the same deed book, at page 239, is recorded a deed of gift of a slave to his son, Le Roy Hipkins, of South Farnham parish, dated August 3, 1763, and on page 251, is recorded a deed of gift of a slave to his son, Samuel Hipkins.

From the will of Colonel Samuel Hipkins, dated March 9, 1764, proved in Essex, September 18, 1769, is gleaned, his widow, Margaret (Upshaw) Hipkins died about this latter date, and that they left four sons, Richard, Le Roy, Samuel and John Hipkins and two daughters, Mary Ann Roane and Patsey Sthreshley. DOCUMENTATION & NOTES:

1. A COMMENT CONCERNING THE NAME OF FOREST/FORESTER UPSHAW.

Until 2009, all research references have given his name as "Forrest" although, as it may be evidenced in the twenty eight citations in 1757 & 1758 Essex County, Virginia, to "court held at the house of Forester Upshaw", his name is given in all but one of those cases as "Forester" Upshaw. His full name is, therefore, proven to be "Forester", although he obviously also was known by the shortened version of "Forest" Upshaw.

FORREST UPSHAW, not named as were his brothers, in the will of his father, Captain William Upshaw, December 16, 1716, was born not later than 1718, for with Thomas Graves and Richard Graves he witnessed the will of Thomas Sthreshley, Sr., Nov. 5, 1735, and must therefore have been at least 16 years old at that time. (Source: Essex County, Loose Papers, E C - N - 108).

February 16, 1743, he was a witness to an indenture between John Gatewood, of South Farnham Parish, Essex, and William Rennolds, of the same parish and county. (Deeds, Etc., Book 13, p. 121).

With William Sthreshley and Hannah Webb, he went on the bond of the latter as executrix (sic) of the estate of Edward Webb, deceased. March 20, 1750. (Will Book 8, p. 220).

November 21, 1749, he is recorded as bondsman for James Dillard, as guardian of Rachel Hunt, orphan of John Hunt, Sr., deceased. (Order Book 16, p. 4).

Forrest Upshaw married Ann, the widow of John Hunt, Sr., and was appointed guardian of his step-daughters, Elizabeth and Rachel Hunt. He produced his ward, Rachel Hunt's account in Essex Court, August, 1752.

He served in the French and Indian War as Captain, Essex County Militia. ("Essex County Militia, 1753" - Archives Dept., Va. State Library).

During his term of service he was sent by John Corbin, County Lieutenant of Essex County, to convey a number of drafted and enlisted men to Fredericksburg, "and if there is no person appointed by the Governor to receive them there that they be sent to Fort Loudon to the Commanding officer there." Upon his arrival at Fredericksburg he turned them over to Lieutenant Peter Steenbergen and received the following receipt:

Fredericksburg, July the 5th 1757.

Then recd. of Capt. Forest Upshaw of the County within Mentioned the following drafts and Soldiers, Abner Dobins, John Burnett, Thos. Brown, James Hamilton, James Ingram, Ralph Farmer, Joseph Noell, Charles Carnes, all Drafts, John Sutliff, Joseph Minter, & Thomas Burnett (enlisted soldiers). Peter Steenbergen Lieut.

(Deed Book 27, p. 320)

At a Court held for Essex County at Tappahannock, January 17, 1758, it was ordered that on account of "the infectuous disease of small-pox that the court be held at Capt. Upshaw's House". (Order Book 22, p. 95).

Captain Forrest Upshaw appears to have died circa 1759, leaving at least three children: Le Roy, Milley and John Upshaw. Archibald Ritchie was appointed administrator of his estate, February 20, 1759. John Lee, Jr., goes on his bond. An inventory of his estate was taken February 23, 1759, by Silvanus Tandy, John Smith and John Davis and recorded May 16, 1759. (Will Book 11, p. 161, 185, 292).

His widow, Ann (Hunt) Upshaw survived him thirty-six years, dying 1795, in Essex County. There is recorded a payment to John Clarke for carrying the news of her death to her heirs in Amherst County. Thomas Dix and William Latane administered the estate. Payments were to legatees: James Pamplin (footnote 17: Ensign, Amherst County Minute-men; Captain of Militia, 1780; promoted Major, 1781; resigned on account of old age, 1796) in right of his wife, Rachel; John Christian, in right of his wife, Elizabeth; Jeremiah Burnett, Mildred Burnett and Catherine Burnett; James Dillard, Jr., administrator of James Dillard, Sr.; Le Roy and John Upshaw.

From the settlement of the estate, it would seem that William Upshaw's widow, Elizabeth (Hunt) Upshaw, married second, John Christian; Rachel Hunt married James Pamplin, and they moved to Amherst County; Mildred Upshaw married Jeremiah Burnett; Mary Ann Hunt married James Dillard, Sr. (footnote 18: James Dillard, Sr., born October 15, 1729, died August 24, 1794, at "Islington," Amherst County; married July 8, 1748, Mary Ann (born April 28, 1734; died August 26, 1787) daughter of John Hunt, Sr., and sister of Elizabeth Upshaw. Their son, James Dillard, Jr., (born October 29, 1755), married April 3, 1782, Jane (born December 12, 1757) daughter of Maj. John Starke, of Hanover Co., Virginia. James Dillard, Jr., served as Capt. in the 10th Va. Regt. Contl. Line in the Revolution. (see his application for a pension, of record in the Veterans Bureau, Washington, D.C.).

Some time before the Revolution, many of the Essex families originally from Gloucester, answering the call of the "Blue Mountains", began to migrate westward, and at the outbreak of the Revolutionary

"Mrs. Upshaw" noted at the southern edge of the John Upshaw plat of 500 acres, 1787. (Editor's Note: The identity of this "Mrs. Upshaw" is unknown to me although as this is shown on a plat dating 1787, it must be Ann Upshaw, widow of Forrester Upshaw, mother of John Upshaw, owner of the 500 acres mentioned in this plat). Ann Upshaw is not found in any records other than those of Essex County. I suppose it is possible that John may have brought her to Elbert County with him when he came with his family in 1787, although I know of no other evidence of her having been in Georgia.

9. Note: Despite the repeated references to the will of Mrs. Ann Upshaw, I have not located any will of Ann Upshaw, recorded or otherwise, in Essex County. There is no will for her found in Wesley E. Pippenger, Virginia's Lost Wills, An Index (Tappahannock, VA: privately printed, 2013).

It may have been held out as evidence and filed elsewhere because of the Court case involving portions of her estate - TOB. There is a court case which originated in Amherst County involving slaves mentioned in the will of William Upshaw in 1761 "The negroes in the possession of Mrs. Ann Upshaw, that was gave my wife by her brother John Hunt, my part I desire may be equally divided amongst my uncle Forrest Upshaw's three children at their mother's decease, Leroy, Milley and John ...". This court case is found abstracted in "Virginia Reports", Vol. 2, pages 381-394 and was printed in the Upshaw Family Journal, Vol. 8 #4, Winter 1982, pp. 96-104.

NOTES:

1. I am very uncertain of whether this Frances, wife of Charles Brooking, was Frances "Upshaw" or Frances "Vivian". Mr. Tony Quinn, in Dec. 1999, sent me a copy of a Brooking Family Bible from the Library of Virginia which does not give Frances' maiden name, only that "Charles & Frances Brooking were married 3rd June 1754". Also, from "Genealogies of Virginia Families From the William and Mary College Quarterly Historical Magazine", Vol. V (Baltimore, MD: Genealogical Publishing Co., 1982), page 258 is (concerning Robert Brooking) "From the following deed we learn that he married Frances, daughter of Thomas Vivian, Gent.: May 18, 1741, Thomas Vivian, Gent., of King George County, "out of pure natural affection to his Daughter, Frances, wife of Robert Brooking," of St. Stephen's Parish, King & Queen County, deeds to him 220 acres of land in Essex County. (Deed Book 22, page 235).
2. I cannot place Frances Upshaw in the Upshaw family as of 1999. Who were her parents? If she was married in Culpeper Co, VA, check marriage bonds there for consents. Also check King & Queen Co, VA, for Frances Brooking estate ca 1804. If Frances (Upshaw) Brooking was 85 years old when she died in 1804 (see obituary in primary source #3), her father would've been born before 1700, who must be one of the sons of William Upshaw of Essex Co., although this relationship has not yet been discovered; check those estates carefully for Frances.

Charles Brooking, born 1720 Gloucester Co, VA; his will was probated in 1795 Madison Co, VA, naming four sons and a niece. She (Frances) died 27 Oct 1804 in King & Queen Co, VA (per Brooking Bible record). She was a Patriot in the American Revolution, having furnished supplies for the use of the Army. The family records at the University of Virginia state that Charles & Frances were cousins. (Note: need to secure a copy of these "family records at the University of Virginia"; asked Mrs. Gibson for a copy 8 Jan 1990). Additional note - Charles Brooking named one of his sons Upshaw Brooking who died at the age of 20. Mr. Quinn furnishes these comments in July 2000:

"In 1979, four descendants of Charles & Frances Brooking published a family history titled "Five Oaks, Their Roots and Acorns". In this they assert (with no proof) that Frances was either 'Upshur' or 'Upshaw'. They obtained a family Bible of Robert Upshaw Brooking and, on that basis, they concluded her maiden name was 'Upshaw'.

Also, a man named Russell Hansford, now deceased, did a family history some years ago and he also says that Charles Brooking married Frances Upshaw and adds a note "Who was her father?".

Charles Brooking and Frances Upshaw had the following children:

- +69 i. William Brooking, born 10 Sep 1755, Culpeper Co, Virginia; married Anne Thompson, 21 Jan 1778, Orange Co, Virginia; died 10 May 1819, Virginia.

Edmund Taylor was one of the "Knights of the Golden Horseshoe", accompanying his brother James 2nd Taylor on the expedition 1716 across the Blue Ridge led by Gov. Alexander Spotswood. The records of the trip tell that Gov. Spotswood carved on a stone on the highest peak of the mountain: "Mt. George" and drank with his men, a toast to the King. They found the headwaters of the James River, no bigger than a man's arm, flowing from under a stone. (Source: "History of St. Mark's Culpepper Co, VA", by Raleigh T. Green) On 17 Sep 1719 Edmund Taylor sold 500 acres of land in Southfarnam Parish, Essex Co, VA, to Henry Reeves of St. John's Parish, King and Queen Co, VA. Four hundred acres of this land was given to Edmund by his father James Taylor, part of a 744 acre grant to James Taylor Oct 1628. One hundred acres was land Edmund bought 29 Aug 1719 from his brother-in-law Edward Eastham. (Essex Co, VA, records, p. 142-147). On 18 Sep 1719 Sarah Taylor of St. John's Parish, King William Co, VA, appointed William Beverly of St. Anne's Parish, Essex Co, VA, her attorney to acknowledge unto Henry Reeves, Sr., of Southfarnam Parish, her right of dower to 500 acres of land. (Essex Co, VA, records, by Dorman, p.142)

On 30 Jun 1726 Edmund Taylor gave a deed of gift of 800 acres of land in St. Stephen's Parish, Spotsylvania Co, VA, to sons James and John Taylor, land which Edmund heired from his father. (Child of Jeremiah Upshaw): James Upshaw, perhaps the oldest son of Jeremiah Upshaw, was born circa 1730 (footnote 7: Death Notices in Richmond newspapers: "Col. James Upshaw, aged 76 years, on July 22, 1806." (William & Mary College Quarterly, VII,201).) He married Suca, the widow of William Sthreshley, (died 1750), and daughter of Captain Thomas Jones, Gent., and wife, Hannah. She was sister to John Jones, who, in his will proved in Essex in 1759, bequeaths to "my sister, Suca Upshaw my Riding Chair & one bay horse called Barby." John Jones names also his nephews, James and Jeremiah Upshaw, Thomas and William Sthreshley and nieces, Elizabeth and Mary Jones. Among other legatees was an aunt, Martha Sale, wife of Cornelious Sale (footnote 7a: son of Cornelious Sale, who died in Essex County, 1746. Will Book 7, page 501). who, in his will dated October 3, 1772, and recorded in Essex County Will Book 13, page 12, July 17, 1775, made bequests to James and Suca Upshaw's children.

We gather from the division of Mrs. Hannah Upshaw's estate, that James Upshaw had married his cousin, Suca Jones, and that she and John Jones, Thomas Jones and William Jones were grandchildren of Hannah Upshaw, wife of Captain William Upshaw. December 20, 1757, James Upshaw was appointed guardian of Thomas and William Sthreshley, orphans of William Sthreshley, dec'd. The same day William Daingerfield, Esqr., Francis Waring, Thomas Waring and John Lee, Gents., divided the estate of William Sthreshley, dec'd., between James Upshaw in right of his wife, Suca's dower, and his orphans, Thomas and William Sthreshley. According to the law of that day he not only enjoyed the estate of his wife, but partly that of his step-children, for in the settlement of the estate James Upshaw received for "boarding & clothing Thomas and William Sthreshley 7 years at 16 pounds per year, 112 pounds; to cash for their schooling 2 pounds, 17 shillings, 3 pence." (Order Book 22, page 94 and Will Book 11, page 43-45). In 1761, there is recorded a payment by him to Leonard Garnett for "schooling" them. (Guardian Book, page 11).

In 1767, James Upshaw was commissioned Captain of Essex County Militia, and qualified to his commission, Nov. 17th of the same year. (Order Book 27, page 37).

He was one of the signers of the Articles of the Westmoreland Association in 1766. (Collection of the Virginia Historical Society, New Series, Vol. 10, page 373).

He removed later to Caroline County, where he was one of the Justices, 1770-1778, and Sheriff, 1785-1787. In 1774 he served as a member of the Caroline County Committee of Safety, and in 1778, was commissioned Lieutenant-Colonel of the Caroline Militia. and served during the War of the Revolution.

At his death, July 22, 1806, he left the following children: Elizabeth Upshaw, James Upshaw, Jerry (Jeremiah) Upshaw and Martha Upshaw.

2. James Upshaw, son of Jeremiah Upshaw, son of William Upshaw, was born ca. 1730; died 1806. He married Suca Jones, daughter of Thomas Jones and Hannah Upshaw. James and Suca were first cousins. At the time of her marriage to James Upshaw, Suca Hones was the widow Sthreshley.

(Order Book 21, 1754-1757, p. 363). William Roane Jr. and Elizabeth Ball were married in 1758 in Virginia. Elizabeth Ball was born circa 1733. She was buried at an unknown cemetery.

William Roane and Elizabeth Ball had the following child:

- 95 i. Spencer Roane was born on 4 Apr 1762 in Essex Co, Virginia. He was buried at an unknown cemetery. 1. "The Upshaw Family of Essex", by Lenora Higginbotham Sweeney.

Spencer Roane, son of Colonel William Roane by his first wife, was born in Essex County, 4 April, 1762. His first wife was Anne, daughter of Patrick Henry; he married second, a daughter of Colonel Hoskins, of King and Queen County. By her he had a daughter who married Governor McDonald, of Georgia, afterwards Chief Justice of that State. He attended William and Mary College, and was one of the founders of the Phi Beta Kappa Society. "He studied law with George Wythe, and also in Philadelphia, after which he was a member successively of the Virginia Assembly, Council and Senate. He was appointed a Judge in 1789 of the General Court, and in 1794 of the Court of Errors." After the death of Judge Pendleton, he universally ranked as the ablest member of that court. He was twice one of the persons appointed to revise the laws of the State and several times Presidential elector.. "Mr. Jefferson it is said wished him to run as Vice-President under Mr. Crawford with the view that he might succeed the latter as President. But Mr. Crawford's ill health and Roane's death prevented the event." In 1819, he was one of the commissioners for locating the University of Virginia. "Judge Roane was a Jeffersonian Republican, and wrote several essays under the name of 'Algernon Sidney', asserting the supremacy of a State in a question of conflicting authority between Virginia and the United States, which were published in the Richmond Enquirer'." He died in Sharon Springs, Virginia. September 4, 1822,. The county of Roane, West Virginia, and Spencer, it's county seat, were named in his honor.

Hi son, William Harrison Roane, by his first wife, Anne Henry, was born 1788 and died 1845. Like his father he studied at William and Mary College. He was a Representative in Congress, 1815-1817, and United States Senator, 1837-1841. "He had a decided dash of the eloquence of his grandfather (Patrick Henry), and was filled with the peculiarities of the Roanes, high spirited, soft hearted, strong minded, generous, impulsive, but with all their rough traits softened down by a more extended intercourse with the world." He married, Martha Bland Seldon, born January 15, 1786, daughter of Col. Miles and Elizabeth (Armistead) Selden. ("William & Mary College Quarterly", VII, 51 and XVIII, 277; Kennedy: "Seldens of Virginia", p. 125). (Source: William &

William Roane Jr. and Ann Cooke were married (living) 1758 in Virginia. Ann Cooke was born (living) 1733. She died (living) 1758. She was buried at an unknown cemetery.

36. Mary "Molly" Roane was born circa 1738 in Essex Co, Virginia. She was buried at Ritchie family cemetery in Tappahannock, Essex Co, Virginia. 1. "The Upshaw Family of Essex", by Lenora Higginbotham Sweeney.

4. Mary Roane, the fourth child of Captain William and Sarah (Upshaw) Roane, married Archibald Ritchie, a Scotch merchant who settled about the year 1749, in Tappahannock, the port of entry for all the surrounding country. "In this small village, as in few others in Colonial Virginia, there intermingled the best in the plantation life with the energy, initiative and sagacity of the Scotch tradesman."

December 19, 1749, George Gerrard, of Essex, planter, sold to Archibald Ritchie, three lots in Tappahannock numbered 45, 51 and 52. His wife, Diana, appeared in Essex Court and released her right of dower. (Deeds, etc., Book 25, 1749-1752, p. 84). He steadily acquired neighboring lands until he owned a handsome estate. About 1768, he erected the "Ritchie House", the only brick residence at that time in the Borough of Tappahannock, on the Rappahannock, in Virginia.

Francis Jordone, of Yorktown, in a letter to Captain Hugh Crawford, in England, 21 August, 1753, writes: "Last week Mr. Archbd. Ritchie was married to a daughter of Capt. Roan's, with whom he gets 500 pounds down, & as much at her father's death." ("William & Mary Coll. Quarterly, XI, 240).

January 22, 1757, he was commissioned Captain of Essex County Militia, by his friend, Governor Robert Dinwiddie. James Webb, Gent., served in his Company as Lieutenant in the French & Indian War in 1757, and John Edmondson as Ensign in 1758.

He was Treasurer of Essex County, 1765; Justice from 1757 to 1775, and in 1776 was appointed a member of the Essex County Committee of Safety.

His Scotch canniness is shown by the fact that he erected a causeway through the low grounds adjoining Moore Fauntleroy, in Richmond County, and by his own private ferry enabled customers to come from Richmond to his store in Tappahannock. By an Act of the General Assembly passed in October, 1764, this ferry was established for public use and Capt. Ritchie was allowed to charge each person one shilling, three pence, and a horse at the same rate, "and in that proportion for transporting of carriages, cattle, and other things." These charges being considered excessive, they were changed by an Act of Assemble in 1766, to one sghilling per person and the same for horses, etc. (Hening: "Statutes", VIII, 46-47, 194-195).

Ambler, in his "Life of Thomas Ritchie", says: "Archibald Ritchie violated the association of 1774, entered into to prohibit the importation of British goods into Virginia, and incurred the enmity of Richard Henry Lee who had raised a mob to destroy his business." It would be interesting to learn whether the force crosses at the ferry and the leader

"Cries, 'Boatman, do not tarry!
And I'll give thee a silver pound,
To row us o'er the ferry' " ---

It may be that Mrs. Ritchie persuaded him to apologize to the Governor or else he heard the Whigs singing the patriotic refrain of Essex:

"When side by side, Col. Will Roane tied a negro and a Tory."

Be that as it may, it is recorded that his apology was accepted by Patrick Henry, the Governor. Ever afterwards Captain Archibald Ritchie was satisfied to sell American merchandise and even furnished gunpowder with which to fight the British.

From the diary of Colonel Landon Cartter, of "Sabine Hall," Richmond County, we learn that he enjoyed the friendship of Colonel Carter, and with his brothers-in-law Dr. John and Colonel Moore Fauntleroy Brockenbrough were frequent guests of Colonel John Tayloe at his beautiful home, "Mount Airy."

At October Court, 1779, Archibald Ritchie made oath that he had imported from London in the ship "Charming Molly," in July, 1764, eighty-three indentured servants and in the same ship in 1765, twenty-six indentured servants. (Order Book 29, pp. 449-450).

His will, dated September 18, 1782, was recorded in Essex County Will Book 13,, pp. 415-417, April 20, 1784.

Mary "Molly" Roane and Archibald Ritchie Sr. were married circa 1758 in Virginia. Archibald Ritchie Sr. was born circa 1738 in Virginia. page 154) Ritchie Family cemetery (Site). In 1768, Archibald Ritchie acquired the entire block of Town Lots 17, 18, 21 and 22, where he lived until his death. An 1811 deed from John Temple to George W. Banks and Tunstall Banks, reserved the Ritchie family burial vault area "38 feet east, 15 feet north and 30 feet west." The cemetery was located on either Town Lot 18 or 22. This was behind what was then known as the Farmer's Hotel, and later the Union Hotel. The Essex Florist shop may have been built on or near the site. The Ritchie family burial vault is mentioned in two accounts of depredations by British soldiers during the War of 1812. In 1814, a newspaper article described that the vault door has been forced, and five coffins out of nine had been broken to pieces and the skeletons lay exposed to the gaze of any who chanced to look in. Also that year, it was noted:

Scarcely a house of any distinction in the town escaped robbery or dilapidation, this was not all; they entered the family vault of Col. Ritchie, and with unholy hands disturbed the ashes of the dead; five out of nine coffins were opened and their mouldering contents mutilated, and left exposed; the escutcheons torn from their places and flung out; this was done with the pretence of searching for treasure ...

In a letter from Austin Brockenbrough on 10 Apr 1854, to Thomas Ritchie, he notifies the family that the state of the vault, the wooden cover to it, has entirely decayed & nearly all blown off by winds. The brick work including the arch is still in state of some preservation, but a recent leak at top threatens a speedy chasm. Brockenbrough recommended it was best to cover the remains with earth and sod it over with decency.

As late as 1900 one could find quantities of white marble fragments scattered about. In the 1920s, a commercial building was built on the site that was later used as a florist shop and a thrift store. No grave markers have been found.

Susannah was not mentioned in her father's will, but her sister, Sally, who never married (her will in my possession), left her "land and plantation, my negro girl Beck, and all the rest of my estate" to Susannah upon the death of her mother. Her mother was Tamoson Sthreshley, the daughter of Captain William Sthreshley, Jr., of Essex County. Sally Upshaw died in 1771.

The Upshaw family was very prominent in Colonial days in Essex County, Virginia. The history of this family appeared in the William & Mary College Quarterly, January 1938 (Second Series, Vol. 18, No. 1). He had little more than rounded out his 'three score years and ten' when he fell quietly asleep at 'Oaklee,' his country home in Woodford County, Kentucky, October 1, 1914." ("Va. RICHARD G. TERRELL. Richard G. Terrell, wholesale grocer of Paducah, Kentucky, was born in Ballard county, Kentucky, April 14, 1844. His parents were Thomas F. and Mary (Fletcher) Terrell. His paternal grandfather was Chiles Terrell, a practical surveyor, who came from Virginia to McCracken county, Kentucky, as early as 1826, with his son J.H. Terrell, then eleven years of age, and surveyed a large portion of the land in said county. Chiles Terrell was no ordinary man. He was highly educated. After doing the above mentioned surveying he returned to Virginia, and in the year 1827 he removed to Louisville, Kentucky, and in 1828 was professor of Mathematics in the Jefferson Seminary. He came to McCracken county in 1839, and died here in 1851, aged seventy-one years. He married Mary C. Upshaw, who died in 1836. Their son, Thomas F. Terrell, was born in Richmond, Virginia, but was reared on a farm in Jefferson and McCracken counties, Kentucky in both of which counties his father farmed in his latter days. Thomas F. Terrell was born January 13, 1820. When twenty-three years of age he married and settled in Ballard county, of which county he served as sheriff, and which he afterward represented in the legislature. In 1856 he removed to Paducah and there became a prominent business man and esteemed citizen. Richard G. Terrell was educated in Paducah and at the Washington and Lee University of Virginia. In 1868, in connection with W.H. Bradley, he embarked in the produce and seed business in Paducah, and four years later succeeded to the ownership of the entire business. His business gradually increased, agricultural implements were added and then groceries, and today he ranks among the leading wholesale grocers of Kentucky. In 1873 Mr. Terrell married Miss Mildred, daughter of Colonel Thomas J. Pickett. In his home and domestic relations Mr. Terrell is a beloved husband and father, among business men he is esteemed for his sapient business qualities, and by his fellow citizens he is held in high regard in consequence of his genial deportment and real worth as a progressive and public-spirited citizen.

On the march, the Virginia militia was aligned in the rear, behind all other troops, just in front of the artillery stores. When the troops were deployed in line of battle, the Virginia militia was situated, with the Light infantry, upon the left of the Colonial army.

16 August: At day light the enemy attacked and drove in our Light Parties in front, when Gen. Gates ordered our left to advance and attack the enemy - but the left wing and North Carolina militia gave way; the enemy's cavalry, coming round the left flank of the Maryland division, completed the rout of all the militia, leaving the Continentals alone to face the enemy's whole force. "By this time the militia had taken [to] the woods in all directions, I concluded with General Caswell to retire toward Charlotte." [report of General Horatio Gates].

28. 1797, March: Oglethorpe Co., GA, (Superior Court) March term, 1797: The State vs. Leroy Upshaw) uttering (sic-altering) and passing counterfeit guineas.

The prisoner Leroy Upshaw was indicted for falsely altering and passing to one John Gresham, two counterfeit guineas, of base metal, of the likeness and similitude of English guineas; knowing them to be base and counterfeit as aforesaid, contrary to an Act of the General Assembly.

At the trial of this case the aforesaid John Gresham, produced in court two guineas which had every appearance of base metal, and the said Gresham being examined on oath sayeth, that he received the two guineas aforesaid of the prisoner with four others which were good, in discharge of a debt; that sometime after he informed the prisoner that the two guineas were counterfeit; when the prisoner told him that if they were he did not know it and that he would pay him other money for them; ten or twelve days after the prisoner came again to his house, and informed him he had part of the money to redeem the two guineas that were supposed to be counterfeit, which he refused to receive until he could pay him the whole; at another time, after he had obtained a warrant against the prisoner, he, the prisoner, applied to pay him other money for the two guineas, but he refused to receive it. It further appeared that some short time before Upshaw paid the money to Gresham, he had received in Virginia a considerable sum of money in gold, and at the time of payment produced to Mr. Gresham a number of guineas, out of which he took such as he liked, and weighed them himself. The jury found the prisoner not guilty.

Your petitioner, then requested the said Staples to take up the deed which he had executed to Crow, and execute one to William Bradley, which he said he would do, and your petitioner deceived by said promises, delivered him the said deed but after the said Staples had so deceitfully got into possession the said deed he utterly refused to execute unto the said Bradley or to give up the Deed Executed to the said Crow as aforesaid altho (sic) frequently desired and requested by your petitioner. But the said Staples intending to defraud and injure your petitioner hath nuetered (?) and rendered void the said deed by tearing out the names of the witnesses and the said Staples and your petitioner further states that the said Staples has since and continued to cut down the timber cuttable (?)

47. 1803 (& later): It is extremely important to note that Leroy Upshaw had returned to Virginia by this time to enter a law suit first pronounced on 3 June 1803 in favor of the plaintiffs and heard on appeal on 29 June 1807 which was upheld by the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia (see UFJ, Vol. 8, pp. 96-107). During this time, on 4 Nov. 1805, he married Milly Scott in Halifax County, Virginia. The appellees, (the complainants in the Court of Chancery,) are the three children of Forest Upshaw named in the codicil to William Upshaw's will, and were brothers and sisters, of the half blood of John Hunt. In March, 1797, they filed their bill in the High Court of Chancery, against Elizabeth Upshaw, stating the above facts, claiming a discovery of those slaves, and asserting a title to them and their profits, on the ground that the title in remainder in the said slaves after the death of Ann Upshaw either vested in William Upshaw, or, being devised away by him, ought not now to be claimed by his widow, who under his will had held property of greater value and received the profits thereof for more than twenty-five years, and thereby, as well as by the contract since made with the other legatees of William Upshaw, had made her election to submit to his will.

The appellees, Le Roy Upshaw and others, claim under the will of John Hunt alone.

Le Roy Upshaw, as Lieutenant in Captain Azariah Martin's Company, was engaged at the battle of Camden. He married in Bedford County, October 24, 1769, Elizabeth Bradley. Also, daughter Elizabeth had married John Staples in 1786 in Buckingham Co, VA, and was therefore not in the family of Leroy Upshaw in 1791. Son, Forrester, believe married abt 1790 and, if so, was not in the family of Leroy Upshaw in 1791.

EXCURSUS NOTES:

1. The following items are communicated from an Upshaw family researcher in 2010 regarding Leroy Upshaw, son of Forrester and are presented here verbatim (although slightly edited for clarity) as a matter of interesting consideration. I am yet unconvinced that the preponderance of the evidence of the lineage as I have it is not correct; see the "Excursus response" following - (TOB, December 2013):

(Contrary note dated Friday, September 10, 2010):

I took notice many years ago of the Leroy Upshaw who married Milly Scott on 4 November 1805 in Halifax County, Virginia and supposed that he was from one of the Upshaw branches that remained in Virginia. Of course, I was wrong. After working for the past ten or fifteen years on various families, I recently returned to a consideration of my ancestors Leroy Upshaw (ca 1740/45-ca. 1798) and Elizabeth Bradley because of various connections with other families of current interest to me. Only a few days ago did I find your impressive list of documents about Leroy and Elizabeth on your website, some of which I had not seen previously. But, from your abstracts, I am pondering a somewhat different scenario.

It seems to me now that Leroy Upshaw Jr. (ca. 1775-after 1826 [probably]) was the one who returned from Georgia to Virginia, as he was charting a new life for himself following the death of his father. Leroy Jr., as heir-at-law, was undoubtedly aware of the legal action of March 1797 in Virginia by the attorney representing the father Leroy, Sr., the uncle, John Upshaw and the aunt, Mildred (Upshaw) Burnett. After Mrs. Ann Hunt Upshaw died in 1796, these three children of Forrest Upshaw "and their heirs forever," who were bequeathed slaves in a codicil to the will of William Upshaw (1761), sought judicial relief to compel William's widow Elizabeth Upshaw, the daughter-in-law of Mrs. Ann Hunt Upshaw, to surrender the slaves and/or their progeny. The attorney for the three filed the brief in February 1797 with the Virginia Court of Chancery where the judge ruled against the defendant on 3 June 1803. The issues were strictly matters of law and not of fact. To seek relief before a chancery court, or court of equity, is a strategy that precludes a jury trial. After reading the briefs of the attorneys and hearing their arguments, the judge can grant three remedies: (1) specific performance, (2) injunction, or (3) damages. The long opinion by the judge was strictly his judicial finding for specific performance. There was no need for John or Leroy Sr. or his heir-at law, Leroy Jr., to be in Virginia at all. The ruling against the position of Elizabeth's attorney was probably one factor in the decision of Leroy, Jr. to leave subsequently for Virginia. The Jeremiah Burnett who gave the power of attorney to Leroy Upshaw in Lunenburg County on 4 February 1806 was his uncle-in-law, the husband of Leroy's and Aunt Mildred ("Milly") Upshaw. The appeal by Elizabeth to the Supreme Court of Virginia against this decision in favor of the three original plaintiffs "and their heirs forever" had mixed results. Much of the reasoning of the Chancery Judge was sustained, although "a just and reasonable allowance" for Elizabeth was ordered in June 1807. She had, after all, cared for the slaves since the death of the mother-in-law.

For a time, it seemed to me that Leroy Upshaw, Sr. last appeared in the Elbert County deed books on 27 March 1797 as a witness to a conveyance by my ancestor Beverly Greenwood to his brother George Greenwood, the brother-in-law of Leroy Jr. But the witness must have been Leroy Jr., as Leroy Sr., his father, was in jail at that time. Until I studied your documents, I had not realized that the State of Georgia had put Leroy Sr. through such an ordeal in 1797. I wonder if that experience, involving several months of imprisonment, before a jury found him innocent in June 1797, did not cut short his life. If so, understandably, his widow was treated most generously in her father's will of 1799. It was almost unheard of for a woman to inherit land from her father if the husband were still alive, and the will states that she was even living on the devised property when her father signed the will. In fact, the absence of any deeds of Leroy, Sr. after the removal to Georgia makes me wonder of he and Elizabeth had not been living on his father-in-law's property all along. I think Leroy, Sr. probably died before 12 January 1799 when she alone testified with regard to the Bradley family claims against the estate of James Stovall whose widow Mary was the sister of Mrs. Elizabeth (Bradley) Upshaw.

The six lawsuits that you cite against Leroy Upshaw between January 1800 and April 1803 were, by my calculation, suits against Leroy, Jr. - one or two of them probably against him as heir-at-law and involving claims against the estate of the deceased. The first plaintiff (1 January 1800) was John Lawless (circa 1760-1831), whose daughter Tabitha Lawless would marry John Upshaw, the nephew of Leroy Jr. John Lawless was the brother of my ancestor Henry Loyless, the name changed by his step father John Burkhalter. The second plaintiff (18 August 1801) was Leroy's brother-in-law John Staples (1757-1837) who married Leroy's sister, Elizabeth Upshaw (1770-1857), whereupon Leroy Jr. retaliated with his own suit of 19 September 1801 against Staples. The third plaintiff Middleton Woods sued both Leroy and his brother Parson Upshaw (ca. 1775-before 1830) in the same action of 27 September 1801. The fourth plaintiff, the merchant Reubin Lindsay sued Leroy on 12 February 1802, as he had a claim against the estate of Leroy Upshaw, Sr. as his name appeared in the account book that you cite. Finally, in February 1803, Robert Thompson brought a suit against Leroy Upshaw Jr. and his brother-in-law George Greenwood (ca. 1765-1834), the brother of my ancestor Beverly Greenwood (ca. 1770-1823), whose granddaughter Mary Word Greenwood married Judge Redding Jefferson Loyless, son of the aforementioned Henry Loyless and wife Lavina Carter. Of course, George Greenwood (ca. 1765-1834) married one of the oldest siblings of Leroy, Jr.; namely, Martha Upshaw (ca. 1767-after 1860), whereas Beverly Greenwood (ca. 1770-1823) married Martha's sister Nancy. Incidentally, Martha last appeared in the home of her son Carter Greenwood in the census of 1860 for Franklin County, Illinois, at age 93.

As for Elizabeth Bradley Upshaw, certainly no evidence of a divorce has ever surfaced. Would Leroy, Sr. have abandoned her and committed bigamy? She was probably the much older lady counted in the household of her son Peter Upshaw (ca. 1785/90-1841) in the census of 1810 for the Pendleton District of South Carolina, and following the removal to Tennessee, she was listed as age 70-79 again in the household of Peter in the census of 1830 for Monroe County, Tennessee. Her son Parson Upshaw last appeared in the census for Montgomery County, Tennessee, in 1820 adjacent to her son-in-law George Greenwood. Her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Staples died in Morgan County, Tennessee, in 1857. The last clear record of her son Leroy Upshaw Jr. may have been the one in the Lunenburg County Order Book, where noted was his suit of 16 March 1814 against his cousin Philip Burnett. Leroy also evidently moved to Tennessee; you note the deed in Carter County that refers to the land of a "Leroy Upshall" (sic). I cannot explain why he does not appear anywhere in the census of 1820. (TOB note: the 1820 censuses of the eastern portion of Tennessee are not extant). The only Leroy Upshaw to appear in any jurisdiction in the census of 1820 was his first cousin in Georgia, the son of John Upshaw. I have not pursued the matter thoroughly, but I would have to agree with those who have Permelia Ann (daughter of Leroy Jr. and Milly Scott) marrying (1) Andrew Bradley in Carter County on 25 December 1823 and (2) Jesse Rhea, as his second wife, on 16 June 1852, in Monroe County, Tennessee where her uncle Peter and his grandmother last appeared in the census of 1830.

The foregoing thesis is hypothetical, but I would be very interested in knowing how well other may perceive this as fitting the known facts.

(Contrary note dated Monday, September 13, 2010):

Concerning Mr. Elizabeth Bradley Upshaw; in the 1810 census for Pendleton District, South Carolina: Peter Upshaw, his wife, and his mother, I believe, were living near his brother-in-law Beverly Greenwood on pages 206 & 208. After the removal to Tennessee, Peter took as his second wife, Jane Fields in Roane County on 16 January 1817. As I have indicated, I think his mother, age 70-80, was still in his household in the 1830 census for Monroe County (Regiment) 98. Also in Regiment 98 was Elizabeth's daughter-in-law and the widow of Leroy Upshaw Jr., i.e., Millie Scott Upshaw, age 50-60, who was in the household of Elizabeth's grandson-in-law Andrew Bradley and who, before the 1840 census, married a neighbor James Gray. After Peter left for Louisiana after 1830, I believe his mother Elizabeth may have been the lady, age 70-80 (sic?) living, according to the 1840 census of Monroe County, in the household of the aforementioned James Gray, the second husband of Mrs. Millie Scott Upshaw and located adjacent to Permelia Upshaw Bradley, whose husband had died. Elizabeth died after 1840. Her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Millie Scott Upshaw Gray, whose second husband died after 1840 was living in the home of Elizabeth's granddaughter Permelia Upshaw Bradley, according to the 1850 census.

(Contrary note dated Saturday, November 20, 2010):

The lack of any estate papers confirming Leroy Upshaw's death ca. 1798 should seem no less troublesome than the lack of evidence of a divorce that would have freed him from a charge of bigamy, a crime that brought the death penalty in Virginia until 1855. Moreover, it is difficult for me to believe that Milly Scott would have married an old man at least thirty years her senior. The detailed record of those suits against Leroy Upshaw from 1800 to 1803 might indeed reveal that, in some of those actions, Leroy Jr. was being sued as an "heir at law." Another point is apropos: you indicate in your synopsis of the Elbert documents that the Leroy Upshaw in the account book of the "lunatic" Reuben Lindsay could not have been Leroy Upshaw Sr. but must have been Leroy, the son of John, which was in July 1809. In reviewing Farmer, pp. 80-93, it becomes clear that the court action in July 1809 involved a petition by the wife of the lunatic for him to be recognized as incompetent to handle the family affairs. Part of the evidence placed by the court clerk in the Lindsay file at that time included an account book with the entries dating back probably to the 1790s. Included in the account book were BOTH Leroy Upshaw SR." (page 89) and "Leroy Upshaw JR." (page 91). Of course, the Lindsay's wife was out of luck on those two claims because I still believe that one Leroy was dead and the other outside the Georgia jurisdiction. Six years earlier (April 1803) Lindsay had indeed sued the surviving Leroy Upshaw; no action is indicated because Upshaw had probably just left for Virginia. Finally, the Inferior Court execution of 21 February 1803 was against George Greenwood and his brother-in-law, Leroy Jr. The sheriffs of Elbert County must not have been the sharpest blades in the drawer. The levy against these two had to be revived in January 1809, January 1810 and October 1811 (Farmer, page 172). Leroy was in Virginia and the Census for 1810 for the old Pendleton District of South Carolina shows that George Greenwood (page 10), his brother and my ancestor Beverly Greenwood (page 9) and the Greenwood's brothers-in-law Drury and Peter Upshaw (page 11) were no longer in Georgia, and the Upshaws' mother Elizabeth (also George's and Beverly's mother-in-law) was living with Peter Upshaw. George Greenwood "of Pendleton County, S.C." sold his lands in Elbert County in October 1814 (Farmer, p. 243), probably not long before the removal to Tennessee.

EXCURSUS RESPONSE - (by Ted Brooke, December 2013):

I have given below what I consider the vital points of this matter. Barring discovery of yet undiscovered source documents, which is highly unlikely, this will be decided by the preponderance of the evidence we have.

The contrary excursus theory above is largely constructed upon a fatal disconnect in that it fails to recognize the Leroy Upshaw who was born in Virginia in 1788 and was found in the census of Butler County, Alabama in 1830, 1840 & 1850. It is documented that Leroy Upshaw (Sr.) was in Buckingham Co. tax list in 1788. Leroy, born 1788, was not a son of John Upshaw (1755-1834), who already had a son Leroy, born 1785 who is well documented. Leroy, born 1788, neither was not a son of Forrester, the first son of Leroy (Sr.) who was born about 1772 and, although we don't have his documented marriage date, Forrester was only about 16 years old in 1788 which is unreasonably young for fatherhood; furthermore, his youngest child, Forest Tinsley Upshaw, was born in 1796, eight years after 1788. The only possibility is that Leroy Upshaw, born in 1788 and lived from at least 1830 until after 1850 in Butler County, Alabama, is Leroy Upshaw Jr., the son of Capt. Leroy Upshaw Sr. The salient points are as follows:

1. If we accept, as theorized above, that Leroy Upshaw Sr. died "before January 1799", then it is remarkable and unreasonable to consider that, although all - ALL - the Elbert County probate records are extant, including the original papers, there is not a single reference to any estate for him (at any time) - no guardianship bond or assignment, although he would've had at least four minor children at that time (1799), specifically, Martha, Drury, Leroy Jr. & Peter. Furthermore, there is no will or administration, no administrators bond or letters or estate returns; there is nothing that I know of and I have searched the records extensively.

2. If we accept, as theorized above, that it was Leroy Upshaw Jr. (son of Leroy Sr.) who appeared in the various records in Georgia, Virginia & Carter Co., Tennessee, subsequent to 1799, then he was deceased between 1826 and 1830 as he is not in the 1830 census. Milly (Scott) Upshaw was definitely remarried to James Gray. So, then, who is the Leroy Upshaw (born 1788), married to a "Catherine" in 1830, 1840 & 1850 Butler Co., Alabama? There is no plausible explanation, except that this must be the son of Leroy Sr. and thus, Leroy Upshaw Jr. was not the Leroy Upshaw, the husband of Milly Scott who'd deceased between 1826 and 1830.

3. The theory that the Leroy Upshaw involved in the Virginia lawsuit to recover the personal property (willed to the three children of Forrest Upshaw by William Upshaw in his codicil of 1761) was the son of Leroy Upshaw Sr. and was acting as a "heir at law" is unsupported by any documentation whatsoever. At the commencement of this suit in 1797, Leroy Jr. was only about nine years old and not of legal status. Furthermore, if that were the case, ALL, not one, of the heirs of Leroy Upshaw Sr. would have to be named; there is no legal document known to me that stipulates any such condition that only one of the heirs could be the sole representative of all the heirs.

4. As far as the Leroy Upshaw, witness to the 27 March 1797 deed being Leroy Jr., aside from the fact that Leroy Jr. was only nine years old at that time, "as Leroy Sr., his father, was in jail at that time", is not true. The deed from Beverly Greenwood to George Greenwood that Leroy witnessed was on 27 March 1797 and he was indicted three days later, on 30 March 1797 and was tried and found not guilty and thus released only two days later, on 1 April 1797, so his imprisonment was only two days.

5. There were only two contemporary persons named Leroy Upshaw, as follows:

(1) Leroy born 1785, son of John Upshaw of Elbert County. This Leroy is well documented in Elbert County, Georgia, and later, Barbour County, Alabama, where he consistently lived. He married Prudence Richardson in 1814 and is conclusively documented.

(2) Leroy born 1788 in Virginia, who was in Butler County, Alabama, in the 1830, 1840 & 1850 censuses. This Leroy is excluded from consideration as being the Leroy in the post 1799 records simply because of his age, among other reasons. Being born in 1788, he would not be of the legal age of 18 until 1806, so those actions had to involve his father, Leroy Sr. who had to be, of course, still in life at that time.

6. The six lawsuits against Leroy Upshaw in Elbert County between January 1800 and April 1803 would've definitely been against Leroy Sr., as Leroy Jr. was born about 1788 and would not have had legal status until about 1806.

7. The case dated 29 June 1807 in the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia (see "Virginia Reports", Vol. 2, pp. 381-394), specifically states that "the appellees are the three children of Forest Upshaw ...". There is no mention of any "heir at law" or anyone other than the three children of Forest Upshaw: Leroy, John & Mildred.

8. Concerning the comment above "As for Elizabeth Bradley Upshaw, certainly no evidence of a divorce has ever surfaced. Would Leroy, Sr. have abandoned her and committed bigamy?" From our vantage point of over two hundred years removed from the occurrence, lacking any specific documentary evidence, we can only consider the facts we have. It is true that there has been no divorce in Georgia between Leroy Upshaw and Elizabeth Bradley. Georgia began allowing divorces in 1793 and the petitions for divorce were always filed in the Superior Court of the county where the couple resided. Until 1833, after two assenting jury trials in the Superior Court, couples were also required to obtain the consent of the Georgia legislature to obtain a divorce. The divorce records in Acts of the Georgia legislature from 1793 to 1868, the Elbert County Superior Court minutes from 1793, and newspaper abstracts for the period, which are all extant, have been researched for any and all Upshaw references and no reference to Leroy or Elizabeth has been found. There is no record of a divorce between them, because there was no divorce. We do know that Leroy Sr. was having multiple legal problems in Elbert County and the promise of a large inheritance back in Virginia would have obviously been inviting to him.

9. I believe there is merit in the possibility that Leroy's wife, Elizabeth (Bradley) Upshaw, was in the household of Peter Upshaw in the 1810 census of Pendleton District, South Carolina and in the 1830 census of Monroe County, Tennessee. She seems to have been in Elbert County in 1818 when she gave her final receipt of her father's estate. This is credible and needs further research.

10. Regarding the Lindsay account book in Elbert County, the individual accounts would've pre-dated the 1809 date of the action, although the exact original dates of the notes are unknown, it is documented that the due dates of the notes was in 1803. It is quite notable that BOTH "Leroy Upshaw Sr." AND "Leroy Upshaw Junr." are named in Elbert County Superior Court Miscellaneous Records book, 1809-1845, pages 38 & 53; the customary usage of these terms is in distinguishing between father & son and thus, neither of these men were the son of John Upshaw of Elbert County.

Capt. Leroy Upshaw Sr. and Elizabeth Bradley were married on 24 Oct 1769 in Bedford Co, Virginia. Elizabeth Bradley, daughter of William Bradley and Elizabeth Christian, was born circa 1751 in Virginia. She lived in Elbert Co, Georgia from 1790 to 1818. She died after 1818 at the age of 67 in Elbert? Co, Georgia. Elizabeth was buried at an unknown cemetery in Elbert? Co, Georgia.

7. 1820 census: probably in the household of Peter Upshaw in either Monroe or Roane Counties, Tennessee, which 1820 censuses are not extant.
8. 1830 census, Monroe Co, Regiment 98, TN, page 137, Peter Upshaw household: 1 male 40-50 (Peter); 2 females under 5 (Nelly & Nancy, twins); 3 females 5-10 (Sarah, Elizabeth, & unknown); 1 female 10-15 (Mary); 1 female 20-30 (Jane ("Jinsey") Upshaw); 1 female 70-80 (unknown, but perhaps his mother Elizabeth or mother-in-law; see 1810 Pendleton Dist, SC)

COMMENTS:

1. Contrary to DAR records (various membership applications), Elizabeth Bradley was NOT married to anyone prior to her marriage to Leroy Upshaw in 1769, Bedford Co. That marriage bond is of record in Bedford Co., Va., and it gives her name as Elizabeth BRADLEY, stipulating "spinster". DAR records have erroneously stated for many years that she was first married to a "Hugh Greenwood" although no proof was given and, if that were so, her name in 1769 at her marriage to Leroy Upshaw would not be given as Bradley but Greenwood, nor would the bond stipulate "spinster".

2. Elizabeth (Bradley) Upshaw is not found in the Elbert County Cemetery book by the Elbert Co. Historical Society.

3. Elizabeth (Bradley) Upshaw may have been the female age "over 45" in the household of Peter Upshaw, 1810 Pendleton Dist., South Carolina, page 208: 1 male 16-26 (Peter); 2 females 10-16 (unknown, but not his children). 1 female 16-26 (unknown, but apparently his first wife, name unknown, not old enough to be the mother of the two females 10-16, above); 1 female over 45 (unknown, but perhaps his mother or mother-in-law?)

Furthermore, she may have been the female age 70-80 in the household of Peter Upshaw in the 1830 census, Monroe Co, Regiment 98, TN, page 137, Peter Upshaw household: 1 male 40-50 (Peter); 2 females under 5 (Nelly & Nancy, twins); 3 females 5-10 (Sarah, Elizabeth, & unknown); 1 female 10-15 (Mary); 1 female 20-30 (2nd wife, Jane ("Jinsey") (Fields) Upshaw); 1 female 70-80 (unknown, but perhaps his mother or mother-in-law; see 1810 Pendleton Dist, SC)

COMMENTS:

1. The National Archives has no pension application for Milly Gray and/or James Gray for Revolutionary War service; War of 1812 & Indian War pensions not searched.

2. As Leroy Upshaw was about 55 years old when he married Milly Scott in 1805, she was may have been older as well, although her census records are inconsistent and confusing and, if so, may have been a widow in 1805; further research in Halifax Co, VA, circa 1805, is needed.

Leroy Upshaw and Milly Scott had the following child:

- +163 i. Amelia "Permelia" Upshaw, born 1807–1808, Lunenburg Co, Virginia; married Andrew Bradley, 25 Dec 1823, Carter Co, Tennessee; married Jesse Rhea, 16 Jun 1852, Monroe Co, Tennessee; died 1870–1880, Monroe Co?, Tennessee.

DOCUMENTATION & NOTES:

1. Miscellaneous Burnett family notes, by Mrs. June Bork, Huntington Beach, CA 1976 (see UFJ, Vol. 4 page 96).

Jeremiah Burnett, husband of Mildred Upshaw, died in Lunenburg County, Virginia, in 1812, when his will is recorded. The deed records have been searched up to 1825 and Mildred was alive at that time (see Deed Book 26, page 459). in Lunenburg County. I have no further record of her, but I am sure she died there (Note: see Mildred Burnett will, Lunenburg County Will Book 11, pages 338, 339). I have made no connection between the Patrick County, Virginia, and Wayne County, Kentucky, Burnetts with the Lunenburg County group. I do know that of Jeremiah Burnett, of Lunenburg, his cousins went to Spartanburg County, South Carolina, where the Hurts were. These Hurts did settle in Wayne County, Kentucky. Jeremiah lived in Mecklenburg County, Virginia, before moving to Lunenburg County, so there may be a marriage record there of Jeremiah to Mildred Upshaw.

Jeremiah Burnett was a son of Joseph Burnett who died in 1771 in Essex County, Virginia, giving him a number of slaves. Joseph Burnett died intestate and his son Richard was his administrator. Joseph had land in Essex, Caroline and Dinwiddie counties and had sold land in Amelia in 1762 to David Eubanks. Joseph's estate was not settled until 1784, some 11 years after he died. His widow, Clara (Gatewood) Burnett, was still living at this time. His children were: Jeremiah, who married Mildred Upshaw; Joseph (no further record); Thomas; Rachel Burnett, who married Benjamin Gatewood; Clara Burnett, who married John or Henry Gatewood; Leonard, who married Amy Gatewood; and Richard who married Mary Baughan.

Concerning the Burnett-Hurt family connections, we find that a John Burnett married Mary H. Hurt on 22 November 1821 in Lunenburg County, Virginia; bondsman was Allen Hurt.

2. 1810 Census, Lunenburg Co., Virginia: The only Jeremiah Burnett found in 1810 census indexes is in 1810 Edgefield Co., SC, who could be him: 1810 Edgefield Co, SC, page 14: Jeremiah Burnett, 2 males 0-9; 2 males 10-15; 2 males 16-25; 1 male over 45; 1 female 0-9; 1 female 16-25; 1 female over 45.

Independence, Essex C[oun]ty, 16 Nov [17]96.

Sir:

I [rec'd] yours by B.F. Weeks relative to his going to be married to a Miss Smith which young lady I am totally unacquainted with. You say she has [1 word unclear] ten thousand weight of tobacco & nine or ten negroes [1 word unclear] [very] valuable & the young lady [is] industrious &c &c. It's my opinion from her character that she must be a great match for Pope tho am also of opinion that it is a thing he ought not to have thought of for at least five, six, or seven years his [2 words unclear] very unsettled. It will not be in Pope's power to get possession of the small piece of land he owns in Essex until he arrives to the age of twenty years as it's rented until that period & how he's to go to house [1 word unclear] God only knows. It must take a considerable sum of money to do that at least 150 pounds ye estate still [1 word unclear] [a judgment] award against it not long since for at least 100 pounds. I cannot pretend to be [as] good a judge of this matter as Pope's relations & friends your side of the river therefore I have no objections to the Cl[er]k of Westmoreland granting him license to be married whenever he may them. It is my opinion should he get married that he and his wife better board for a year or two with their relations.

1. Recorded in the Parish Register of Christ Church, Middlesax County, is the birth of Charles Blake, son of Benjamin and Frances Blake on November 21, 1778. (Register of Christ Church, p. 282) This record agrees with the Bible record of Charles Blake which also records the birth of his wife, Mary, on July 14, 1774. Charles Blake and Mary, his wife, were married April 8, 1802.

In 1820, Charles Blake, then a resident of Gloucester County inherited from Joel Foster 279 acres of land in Mathews County. Thus, it would appear that Mary, the wife of Charles Blake, was a daughter of Joel Foster who had married Mary Diggs. This assumption is further borne out by the use of both the Diggs and Foster names in subsequent generations of the Blake family.

The Foster property in Mathews County, in which Charles Blake inherited a life interest, was called "Oakland." Located on the North River, it was about six miles southwest of the courthouse. The residence apparently dates from 1797, as that is marked on one of the chimney bricks.

The Blake Bible shows the death of Mary, the wife of Charles Blake, on September 29, 1836. Charles Blake died August 13, on September 29, 1836. Charles Blake died August 13, 1842. Also recorded in the Bible is the record of the children of Charles and Mary Blake.

1. Frances Blake, daughter of Charles and Mary Blake, was born June 15, 1802, and died September 1804.

2. Joel Foster Blake was born February 17, 1806, and died January 15, 1829.

3. Mary Frances Blake was born June 23, 1808, married Samuel Diggs.

4. Charles Henry Blake was born May 11, 1814. He was married on October 22, 1835, in King and Queen County, to Mary Ann Upshaw, born July 27, 1811, daughter of Edwin Upshaw and Lucy Roane of "Newington" King and Queen County.

On the death of their father, Charles Henry Blake and his sister, Mary Frances, inherited "Oakland." In 1843, Charles sold his interest in the estate to his brother-in-law, Samuel Diggs. He appears to have left Mathews County that year as his name does not appear on the tax lists after that date. He removed to Blandville, Kentucky, and was in that state by March 16, 1844, when his daughter, Mary Frances, was born.

Charles Henry Blake and his family lived in Kentucky until after April 27, 1855, as the family record shows his daughter, Alice Upshaw Blake, was born in that state. He and his family removed to Dallas, Texas sometime before July 18, 1870, on which date his son Joel Foster Blake died.

Mary Ann, wife of Charles Henry Blake, died March 22, 1872, and Charles Henry Blake died July 3, 1895. Both were interred in the cemetery at Granbury, Texas, and both graves are marked.

The children of Charles Henry Blake and Mary Ann, his wife, as recorded in the Blake Bible were:

1. Charles Edwin Blake born August 30, 1836, died August 30, 1842.

2. Joel Foster Blake born November 1, 1838 in Virginia and died July 18, 1870 in Texas.

3. Thomas Roane Blake born February 1, 1841 in Virginia.

4. Mary Frances Blake born March 16, 1844, Blandville, Kentucky.

5. Samuel Diggs Blake born June 3, 1847, Blandville, Kentucky.

6. Matha Catharine Blake born January 15, 1850, Blandville, Kentucky.

7. Lucy Roane Blake born August 12, 1852, Blandville, Kentucky.

8. Alice Upshaw Blake, daughter of Charles Henry Blake and Mary Ann, his wife, was born April 27, 1855, in Blandville, Kentucky, and was married October 26, 1876, in Granbury, Texas to John Daniel Baker, born March 23, 1848 in Walker County, Alabama. John Daniel Baker died April 2, 1899, in Henrietta, Texas. His wife survived him many years and died in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, April 13, 1942.

Three of the children of Alice Upshaw Blake and John Daniel Baker died unmarried. Charles Robert Baker was born January 20, 1878, and died February 1908; Alice Ethel Baker was born June 29, 1881, died March 23, 1894; Joel Harris Baker, born May 1, 1885, died August 12, 1924.

Mary Brockenbrough Baker, the only surviving child of John Daniel Baker and his wife, Alice Upshaw Blake, was born December 26, 1891, in Dallas, Texas. She was married November 4, 1915, in Oklahoma City, to Joseph Grancke Rumsey, who died January 23, 1946.

Terrell, then eleven years of age, and surveyed a large portion of the land in said county. Chiles Terrell was no ordinary man. He was highly educated. After doing the above mentioned surveying he returned to Virginia, and in the year 1827 he removed to Louisville, Kentucky, and in 1828 was professor of Mathematics in the Jefferson Seminary. He came to McCracken county in 1839, and died here in 1851, aged seventy-one years. He married Mary C. Upshaw, who died in 1836. Their son, Thomas F. Terrell, was born in Richmond, Virginia, but was reared on a farm in Jefferson and McCracken counties, Kentucky in both of which counties his father farmed in his latter days. Thomas F. Terrell was born January 13, 1820. When twenty-three years of age he married and settled in Ballard county, of which county he served as sheriff, and which he afterward represented in the legislature. In 1856 he removed to Paducah and there became a prominent business man and esteemed citizen. Richard G. Terrell was educated in Paducah and at the Washington and Lee University of Virginia. In 1868, in connection with W.H. Bradley, he embarked in the produce and seed business in paducah, and four years later succeeded to the ownership of the entire business. His business gradually increased, agricultural implements were added and then groceries, and today he ranks among the leading wholesale grocers of Kentucky. In 1873 Mr. Terrell married Miss Mildred, daughter of Colonel Thomas J. Pickett. In his home and domestic relations Mr. Terrell is a beloved husband and father, among business men he is esteemed for his sapient business qualities, and by his fellow sitizens he is held in high regard in consequence of his genial deportment and real worth as a progressive and public-spirited citizen.

COMMENTS:

1. (1999) researcher: Dorothy K. (Staples) Wallace, 1619 Greenfield St., Pace, FL 32571-7320. She mentions that "Information comes from copies of pages of the Thomas Staples Family Bible, that were given to my family by a relative, Elsie Burkett, who did the research years ago". (I have asked her on 1-29-1999 for copies of these Bible pages - TOB).

Dorothy Wallace mentions that the Bible gives the information that "John Staples & Betsey Upshaw were married by Greenberry or Greenberg Green, a Methodist preacher. (Note: "Elbert County, Georgia Deed Books A-J, 1791-1806" shows no reference to Greenberry Green, which may not be very unusual, as Methodist ministers in those times were "traveling" ministers.)

Elizabeth "Betsey" Upshaw and John Staples Sr. were married on 19 Dec 1786 in Buckingham Co, Virginia. John Staples Sr., son of David Staples, was born on 14 Sep 1757 in Albemarle Co, Virginia. He appeared in the census in 1810 in Burke Co, North Carolina. He lived in Morgan Co, Tennessee in 1818–1837. John appeared in the census in 1830 in Morgan Co, Tennessee. It seems logical to conclude that Forrester Upshaw, who, early in the year 1796, was living in Elbert County, was his (Leroy's) son. Forrester Upshaw had two brothers, Richard Upshaw and one whose name is not known. He married Ann Faulkner, and had issue: Le Roy; Middleton; John; James; William; Tinsley (footnote #19: The writer is indebted to his great granddaughter, Mrs. Arthur Cannon, Athens, Ga., for the names of the children of Forrester and Tinsley Upshaw), born 1796, who had twelve children: John Phillips, Robert E., Joe, James, Thomas, George, Benjamin Adkins, Frank Tinsley, James Berrian, Henry, Harrison Filmore and Preston Calhoun Upshaw; Adkins; Hasten, married Rhoda Oglesbey, August 3, 1823, in Elbert County, Georgia (per Marriage License Book). DOCUMENTATION & NOTES:

Some Descendants of Jeremiah Upshaw

19 April 2018

1. 1770-1775: Birth date calculated from age as given in 1820 census of "45 & up" (prior to 1775) & that as given in 1830 census of age 50-60 (born 1770-1780), which taken together, narrows the birth range to 1770-1775.

2. 1800-1825: "Ann Upshaw" listed among members of the first twenty five years (1800-1825) of the Fork of Broad River Baptist Church.

(Source: Fork of the Broad River Baptist Church; (printed in the Georgia Genealogist, County Records, Madison County Cemeteries, page 1):

Founded July 1800, it is now known as the Carlton Baptist Church, Carlton, Madison Co., GA. The church was formed by persons living on both sides of the Broad River and its earliest location was in Oglethorpe County. At some later time the congregation moved northward across Broad River to a location just east of Carlton, GA, near the site of the graveyard. The roll of members during its first 25 years was determined from existing records and recollections of members at the time of the Church's Centennial, July 22, 1900. This copy was contributed by Mr. Claude Stevens, of Elberton, GA., formerly of Carlton, a member of the church, and was taken from pages 313-14 of the Book of Minutes of the Carlton Baptist Church. .

Notes by Mr. Stevens: The first minute book of the Fork of the Broad River Church was destroyed long before the congregation celebrated its centennial [in 1900]. The first extant minute book begins in 1813.

3. 1807, 21 Dec:

Franklin Co, GA; 21 Dec. 1807, before Joel Yowel, J.P., of Franklin Co., appeared Ann Upshear (sic), wife of Forrester Upshear (sic), & rel. her dower rights. (signed) Ann (x) Upshaw. Wit: Joel Yowell, J.P. Rec. 24 Dec 1807. (Farmer, "Deed Books K-R", page 41-42; Source: Elbert County, GA, Deed Book K, page 234)..

5. 1830 census, McMinn Co, TN, page 197 (Forrester Upshaw household): 1 female age 50-60 (born 1770-1780)

6. 1835, Jan: "Anna Upshaw" joined Alpine Baptist Church, Talladega Co, AL, by letter (Casey W. Arnette, "The Tie that Binds, History of Alpine Baptist Church 1832-1988", Alpine Baptist Church, 1988), page 278.

7. 1836, April: "Anna Upshaw" dismissed from Alpine Baptist Church, Talladega Co, AL, by letter (Casey W. Arnette, "The Tie that Binds, History of Alpine Baptist Church 1832-1988", Alpine Baptist Church, 1988), page 278.

8. 1860, 29 Oct: letter from J.H. Curry of Brush Valley, Bienville Parish, LA, to his sister-in-law, Amanda M. Cox, of Walnut Creek, LA (note: this letter was printed in "The Upshaw Family Journal", Vol. II page 47 & includes the following, which is in reference to either Tabitha (Lawless) Upshaw or to Ann (Faulkner) Upshaw: "Manda, old Mrs. Upshaw is dead. She died 22 of October." (note: this reference to "Old Mrs. Upshaw" is interesting - Tabitha (Lawless) Upshaw would've been only about 56 years old in 1860, which is not exactly what most people would call "old"; could this have possibly been in reference to Ann (Faulkner) Upshaw, wife of Forrester, who is thought to have died in Louisiana while visiting a son (according to family tradition by Cora Lou Herndon), although no reference to her or to Forrester has ever been found in Louisiana? Ann (Faulkner) Upshaw would've been about 85-90 years old in 1860, which sounds more like "Old Mrs. Upshaw"). It would be vital to know the age of the letter-writer, J.H. Curry, when he wrote the letter. His own age would have a great effect on his reference point to someone as "old", whether he were a teenager or in his mid-fifties, for example.

COMMENTS:

1. Parson Upshaw is documented to have lived in Elbert Co, GA, before 1802; Roane Co, TN, before October 1811; Dickson Co, TN, in 1815 (perhaps); Montgomery Co, TN, in 1820, adjacent to his brother-in-law, George Greenwood, husband of Martha Upshaw; Gallatin Co, IL, in 1826; Jackson Co, IL, in 1828; no later record.
2. It is suspected that Parson Upshaw was the father of Mary ("Polly") Upshaw, born ca 1798, in GA, who married Ezekiel Starr in Feb. 1820, Blount Co, TN. Parson was in the 1820 census of Williamson Co, TN, which is about 100 miles away from Blount Co. We have no evidence that Parson was in Blount County at any time, although we do know he was in nearby Roane County earlier, in 1811; see notes above. More evidence is needed.
3. Attempting to identify his unknown children, as enumerated in the 1820 Montgomery Co, TN, census, the following three early Upshaw marriages are noted in IL: Nancy Upshaw & Daniel Akers, 21 Jun 1845, Crawford Co, IL; Singleton Upshaw & Amelia Jane Barnett, 4 Apr 1856, Jackson Co, IL; Miss Fredonia C. Upshaw & John E. Glen, 7 Jun 1849, Jackson Co, IL.
What about Singleton Upshaw-was he in the Civil War & did he apply for a pension? If John E. Glen was in Civil War, did Fredonia (Upshaw) Glen outlive him & apply for a widow's pension?
Although there is a marriage if Nancy Upshaw & Daniel Akers in 1845, this Daniel Akers with a wife "Nancy" is not found in the 1850 census index.
4. As concerns possible migration route from eastern Georgia area to southern Illinois area circa 1830, the following is from "Old Dennis Cason's Way Bill" as published in Family Puzzlers periodical, April 4, 1974, issue no. 337, pp. 1-3 (an 1816 map is also shown on pages 8 & 9): Please note that this route goes through Montgomery Co, Tenn, where Parson was enumerated in the 1820 census.
From Sparta [Hancock Co., Ga.]; Enquire for Greens borough [Greensboro, Greene Co, Ga.]; Thence to Cathorns Ferry on Ocony [Oconee River] now Wins [Winns]; Thence to Vans ferry on Chatahooche [Van's Ferry near Flowery Branch, Hall Co, Ga.]; Thence to Blackburns on Hitower [Hightower or Etowah Trail]; Thence to Harnages on Long Swamp [Long Swamp Creek, at Tate, Ga.]; Thence to [George] Sanders [stage stop and hotel]; Thence to Widow Wolfs; Thence to Rosses at the foot of Look Out Mountain [Ross' Landing, now Chattanooga, Tenn.]; Thence to Jasper [Tenn.]; Thence to Helmsworth over Crowells; Thence to Pond Springs; Thence to Stone Fort [Old Stone Fort, Manchester, Tenn.]; Thence to Murfies Borough [Murfreesboro, Tenn.]; Thence to Nashville [Tenn. on the Cumberland River]; Thence to [word obliterated by fold]; Thence to Prt Royal [Montgomery Co., Tenn., on the Red River near the Robertson County line]; Thence to Port Trenton; Thence to old Centerville; Thence to fords ferry on Ohio [near cave in the rock]; Thence to Source; Thence to Mount Vernon; Thence to Carlisle; Thence to Edwardsville, Madison County State of Illinois. [Note: Madison Co, Illinois, is in the vicinity of Gallatin Co. & Jackson Co. in southern Illinois where Parson is documented].
5. Concerning the name "Parson" or "Parsons", which seems to be a surname; Other "Parsons" connections in Amherst Co, VA, are Sally Parsons, who left a nuncupative will in 1802 (Will Book 4, page 33); there is also mention of a "Sarah Parsons" in the will of Edward Cox, 1780 (Will Book 1, page 533). There is no known Upshaw-Parsons connection that I am aware of.

COMMENTS:

1. The will of John Parham, 1804 Elbert Co, GA, names a daughter "Mary Upshaw" and her husband was Richard Upshaw Sr., not Parson Upshaw, as evidenced by the fact that Richard Upshaw, not Parson, signed for his (wife's) share of John Parham's estate. This is proof that the wife of Parson Upshaw was not Mary Parham. The name of the wife of Parson Upshaw thusfar remains unknown.

Parsons Upshaw and (Parson, wife of) Upshaw had the following children:

- +277 i. Amelia "Milley" Upshaw, born 1796, Pendleton Dist?, South Carolina; married Peter Dobbs, 1816–1825, Georgia?; died Jefferson Co, Alabama.
- +278 ii. Mary "Polly" Upshaw, born ca 1798, Elbert Co, Georgia; married Ezekiel Starr Sr., 29 Feb 1820, Blount Co, Tennessee; died 21 Nov 1876, Flint Dist, Cherokee Nation West, IT.

2. 1820 census, Montgomery Co, TN, page 19: "Parson Upshaw": 1 male 10-15 (born 1805-1810).

COMMENTS:

1. This son of Parson Upshaw may have been John Upshaw, b 1801, GA; This was the ancestor of Mrs. Jackie H. Street, 105 Oak Hill Place, Ithaca, NY 14850. This John Upshaw was in Henry Co, TN in 1830, Henderson Co, KY in 1840, Greene Co, MO in 1850, and in Webster Co, MO in 1860; He is thought to have md (1) Cynthia Greenwood ca 1822-24 & (2) Sarah Neece 1845 Henry Co, TN. The marriage to "Cynthia Greenwood" is interesting, as George W., brother of this man, married perhaps a sister, "Mary Malinda Greenwood".

COMMENTS:

1. The will of John Parham, 1804, Elbert Co, GA, names a daughter "Mary Upshaw"; whose husband was Richard Upshaw, as proved by John Parham estate returns. Mary Parham could not have been the wife of Drury Upshaw, as Drury could not have been married much before 1808 and John Parham's will named his daughter "Mary Upshaw" in 1804.

2. Frances (Parham) Upshaw was reinterred at Denlow cemetery, Douglas Co, MO.

(Note: this census report was obviously given to the census taker by John Donley, the ten year old, whose relationship to Amelia is unknown at this time; notice the "Polly Ann Donley" in the 1850 household of Jesse Rhea, Monroe Co, TN). All the ages are in ten year "round" numbers: Amelia was not 50, but 63; Jos. Bradley was not 30, but 36; Millie (Scott) Upshaw Gray was not 110, but about 90 (which might seem like 110 to a ten year old), and was not born in Tennessee in 1760! Louisa Veal was probably a visiting neighbor from two dwellings (#67) away: household of Frank Veal, 65, Nancy Veal, 60, and family.

COMMENTS:

1. One of their first two listed female children, Rebecca and Polly Ann, is evidently in error, as they are shown in the 1830 & 1840 census with only one female child. Probably Rebecca ("Becca") Morgan, born in 1824, is not her child - this Becca is listed in this household in 1850.

Andrew Bradley and Amelia Upshaw had the following children:

DOCUMENTATION & NOTES:

1. 1779, 31 Jan: Birthdate of Sarah Upshaw; (Source: John Upshaw Family Record, University of Georgia Special Collections).

COMMENTS:

1. Marriage date of 12 June 1796, per Mr. Dale Caughey, 1923 Ashbrook Drive, Wilmington, NC, 28401 (this from DAR application of Ms. Myrtle Maxwell). No documentation is known for this date.

2. There is great circumstantial evidence that Sarah Upshaw was NOT the wife of Benjamin Thornton; see "Thornton Family Records - Private Papers" by Mr. Chandler Eavenson, 29 Jul 1991), which shows that Sarah SMITH was his wife. There is only tradition to support the idea that Sarah UPSHAW was his wife; no primary evidence is known. (See Note #3)

3. (Query from "Southern Queries", Vol 6 #2 page 10, by Chandler Eavenson):

Who were parents & first wife of Benjamin THORNTON Sr. b ca 1774-75 according to 1850 census; moved to Elbert Co, GA ca 1805 from Warren Co, NC. Benjamin THORNTON is named in the 1776 Bute Co, NC (later Warren Co) will of William KENDRICK as a minor grandson. Also named in 1793 Warren Co will of Sarah KENDRICK, widow of William. Benjamin had dau Priscilla Kindree THORNTON & granddau Sarah Kindred THORNTON, both middle names believed misspellings of "Kendrick". Benjamin had two granddaus with middle names of "Smith", and other children & grandchildren with middle initial "S". First wife was poss a Sarah SMITH of Warren Co. area, & not the often reported Sarah UPSHAW.

Benjamin Sr. did not accompany Rev. Dozier THORNTON to the Wilkes (later Elbert) Co area ca 1783-84 & would have been only ca age 9 at that time. Benjamin Sr.'s father was possibly a Thomas THORNTON who was associated with the KENDRICK family, brother of a Mark THORNTON Jr. & seller of land to Dozier in Bute Co.

4. Perhaps one of the strongest pieces of counter evidence to Sarah Upshaw being the wife of Benjamin Thornton, Sr., is the 1820 Elbert Co, GA, census, which shows Sarah, the wife of Benjamin as being over 45 years old, meaning she was born before 1775, but it is documented that Sarah Upshaw, dau of John Upshaw Sr., was born 31 Jan 1779.

5. No documentation is known for the 1833 death date of Sarah.

6. It is unusual that John Upshaw, in his will dated 26 Feb 1831, makes no mention of his daughter Sarah or of any of her children. If Sarah Upshaw was NOT the wife of Benjamin Thornton, she may have died either unmarried or married but without children prior to 1831 when the will was written.
7. Sarah (Upshaw) Thornton is not found in "Early Cemeteries and Gravestones, Elbert County, Georgia 1798-1919", by the Elbert County Historical Society, Elberton, GA, 1984.
8. Elbert Co., GA, deed abstracts covering 1791-1835, by Michal Martin Farmer show the following regarding Sarah (Sally) Thornton:
Vol. "Deed Books A-J, 1791-1806", page 237: Elbert Co., Ga., Deed Book G, page 99: Thomas Thornton & Molley, his wife, & Daniel Thornton & Sarah, his wife, all of Elbert Co., to James Jones, etc. dated 25 July 1801.
Vol. "Deed Books K-R, 1806-1819", page 253: Elbert Co., Ga., Deed Book P, page 118: 11 May 1815: Daniel Thornton to John Beck, both of Elbert Co., 204 acres, etc. Sally, wife of Daniel Thornton, rel. dower rights. (signed) Sally Thornton.
(Note: Although there are only two references to a Sarah/Sally Thornton, as the wife of Daniel Thornton, found in these deed abstracts, there is no reference found to any wife of Benjamin Thornton, such as in a dower release, etc.).

1. "A Glimpse of Thorntons Through the Centuries", Walter W. Thornton, Texarkana, TX (date?), page 12. (Note: this citation is incorrect, as it shows that children # 5 through 9 (Dozier, Mary, Thomas, Sarah, & David, or Daniel) were "born of second marriage, Rebecca Upshaw".
(Note by TOB: This is not possible, as Benjamin & Rebecca were not married until 21 Jan 1836, and his first wife, Sarah, did not die until 1833. All of Benjamin's children were by his first wife, Sarah.
2. "The Thornton Family, Dozier Thornton Line", by Jonathan Mills Thornton, (date?), pages 19, 20. This source is likely more correct, as it states that "Benjamin Thornton, born October 12, 1779, in North Carolina, married (1) Sara Upshaw 1796, (2) Rebecca Cook Upshaw, January 21, 1836. No issue second wife. This source also correctly lists eleven children of Benjamin & Sarah.
3. "Thornton Family Records-Private Papers", by Mr. Chandler Eavenson, re ancestry of Benjamin Thornton, Sr., & Sarah Smith?
4. "Thomas Maxwell of Virginia and Georgia and his Descendants"; by Annie Norman, et al, 1956, page 415.
5. "The Official History of Elbert County, 1790-1935", John H. McIntosh, Athens, GA, 1940, pages 529-539 (Thornton family sketch).

COMMENTS:

1. Benjamin's second wife was "Mrs. Rebecca Upshaw", who was Rebecca (nee) Cook, widow of John Upshaw, Jr., who had died in 1818.
2. Benjamin is likely actually the son of Thomas Thornton & Sarah Kendrick, in spite of several published items to the contrary over many years. See "Thornton Family Records-Private Papers", by Mr. Chandler Eavenson.
3. Benjamin Thornton is not found in "Early Cemeteries and Gravestones 1798-1919", by the Elbert County Historical Society, Elberton, GA, 1984.

COMMENTS:

1. It is believed that James and Lucinda (Ham) Upshaw had two other children who died in infancy.

2. Local Laconics.

There is a lady in this place who has a small goblet or wine glass that has been in use for considerably over one hundred years. It was bought by Mr. Middleton Upshaw, who lived in Elbert County. At his death it came into possession of his son, Mr. James Upshaw, who afterwards moved to old Cass, now Bartow, county. At the death of the latter named gentleman, this wine glass fell to the share of his daughter, Mary M. Upshaw, who afterwards married and raised two daughters and, at the marriage of the elder, 19 years ago, this heirloom was given to her, and is now in her possession. (Source: The Jackson Herald newspaper, Jefferson, Georgia, issue of 2 October 1885). (Note: This 1885 account is partially incorrect, in that the father of James Upshaw of Cass/Bartow County was John Upshaw, Sr., RS, not "Middleton" Upshaw).

Some Descendants of Jeremiah Upshaw

19 April 2018

Deaths. Died, on the 2d inst., Dr. James W. Upshaw, of Caroline County, Va., aged about 60 years. His death is very much regretted by his friends and acquaintances. In losing Dr. Upshaw, they sustained a very great loss, not only as a physician, but as a kind neighbor and a benevolent and hospitable man - his liberality to the poor overpowered the length of his purse. He has left behind four children; one of them is grown, and able to steer his course through this unfriendly world - the remainder of them are very young, but fortunately for them, they have fallen into the hands of a kind grandfather. Dr. Upshaw had been a member of the Baptist Church for many years.

1. Capt. Samuel C. (Crockett) Upshaw, Counselor at Law. According to Bacon the greatest trust between man and man is the trust of giving counsel, and in the profession of law the most brilliant talents, most extensive knowledge and the strongest sentiments - moral and spiritual and material - are brought into play, and it's power for good or evil is vast and invincible. Capt. Upshaw is an Attorney of far more than ordinary ability, and is in the active practice of his profession at Hillsboro, Texas.

He was born in Little Rock, Arkansas, Jan. 31, 1840, a son of Col. A. M. M. Upshaw, a native of Essex County, Virginia, who moved to middle Tennessee when a young man, from which state he volunteered in the Indian War of 1836, serving against the Seminoles in Florida, after which he was appointed agent for the Chickasaws by Van Buren and assisted in moving this Tribe to the country it now occupies. He remained agent in charge of this Tribe for ten years, at which time he came to Texas, settling in Washington County, which he afterwards represented in the Texas legislature two terms, and was a prominent citizen of the County until his death, which occurred in 1877. His wife was Ann H. Crockett - a native of Williamson County, Tenn., but she is now a resident of Houston, Texas, and has reached the advanced age of 87 years. This lady was his second wife and became the mother of the subject of this sketch.

Deaths. Died, on the 2d inst., Dr. James W. Upshaw, of Caroline County, Va., aged about 60 years. His death is very much regretted by his friends and acquaintances. In losing Dr. Upshaw, they sustained a very great loss, not only as a physician, but as a kind neighbor and a benevolent and hospitable man - his liberality to the poor overpowered the length of his purse. He has left behind four children; one of them is grown, and able to steer his course through this unfriendly world - the remainder of them are very young, but fortunately for them, they have fallen into the hands of a kind grandfather. Dr. Upshaw had been a member of the Baptist Church for many years.

One DAR record (which one?) shows a marriage record to Elizabeth Nelson also; was he married three times? When he died in 1837 he left orphan children under 12 years of age and John Kidd and his wife of Caroline or King & Queen Co. raised them. (Note: is there a guardianship record of this?)

SECONDARY SOURCES:

1. "Hang 'em First, Try'em Later": "As the only law west of the Pecos", Judge Roy Bean practiced a legendary -- and outrageous -- brand of frontier justice", by Bruce Watson.

page 102: "Many of Bean's rulings were amusing, but there's nothing fun about getting away with murder. Or getting your son off for murder. Sam Bean was the youngest and wildest of Roy's five children. One day in the saloon, a certain Mr. George Upshaw made fun of Sam's fine Mexican blanket. The two men argued, and Upshaw slapped Sam in the face, drawing blood. Roy said simply, "Shoot him, Sam -- shoot him." Obeying his father, Sam blew the man away. For the next year, Roy corralled witnesses and promised favors. In a Del Rio courtroom in 1899, Sam Bean was acquitted. The verdict, a Langtry old-timer remembered, cost Roy "many a bottle of beer" and nearly all the money he'd managed to save." (Source: "Smithsonian" (magazine), June 1998, Vol. 29, #3, page 96).

2. Mr. George Upshaw had a store in Langtry and he also was a rancher. He was like most of the men around Langtry .in those days in that he occasionally spent some time in Roy Bean's saloon. I don't think he was a heavy drinker, but anyway, he was in Roy Bean's saloon drinking one morning with some railroad men and Roy Bean's son Sam was there, too.

It seems like Sam had a Mexican blanket and Mr. Upshaw made fun of it. Anyway, they got in such a hot argument that, and I know this is a fact, old man Upshaw slapped Sam in the face and made his nose bleed. Directly, Mr. Upshaw picked up a Winchester, I suppose it might have been the judge's, he always kept one there. Anyway, Mr. Upshaw held the rifle and Sam's nose quit bleeding. Of course, while all this was going on the old judge was there in the saloon watching it all.

Sam and Mr. Upshaw talked there for a while and then they came out on the porch and he said to Sam,

"I guess if I give you your gun back you will shoot me."

I don't know how long he stood there, but Mr. Upshaw handed Sam the gun and then went on down the steps leading off the porch. There were four or five steps and Mr. Upshaw walked briskly down the steps and started home. He got nearly to the railroad and Sam shot him in the back, right between the shoulder blades. Old man Upshaw turned around and he said, "Sam, don't shoot me anymore. You have give me a dead shot."

Old Judge Roy had been the real cause of it. As Upshaw started off he said, "Shoot him, Sam - shoot him." After Sam shot Mr. Upshaw,, the old judge said, "Shoot him again." Mrs. Upshaw and other people there said that if it hadn't been for old Roy Bean that Sam never would have killed Mr. Upshaw. Old Judge was the cause of every bit of it.

Mr. Upshaw and several others rushed there and Mr. Upshaw was laying on one of the tracks, and he said, "Oh, Sam shot me. I begged him not to shoot me the second time, but he did anyway." They picked Mr. Upshaw up and put him on a cot and carried him down to his house, but he died right away.

Judge Bean ate at Mrs. Dodd's boardinghouse most of the time, and one day about a year after Sam had killed Mr. Upshaw, the judge went down to Mrs. Dodd's to eat. Mrs. Upshaw was working for Mrs. Dodd as a cook and Roy Bean saw her in the kitchen and said, "Who is that cooking in there?"

Mrs. Dodd said, "Mrs. Upshaw."

Roy Bean shoved his plate back, got up and got his hat, and left. Somebody asked Bean what was the matter, and he said he was afraid Mrs. Upshaw might try to poison him (footnote 15).

Sam Bean was the youngest of the five Bean children and was the wildest of the bunch. He was often in trouble, but his father usually figured out some way to keep Sam cleared of the charges. After Sam killed George Upshaw, many Langtry folks figured that Roy Bean would not be able to get his son cleared of such a serious offense. But they underestimated the Law West of the Pecos. Sam Bean was acquitted at a trial held at Del Rio in 1899, but old-timers say it took most of Roy Bean's time for several months and all of his money to swing the verdict. Mrs. Farley told me:

It cost the judge an awful lot, but Sam got out of killing old man Upshaw. I think some of the men swore about Mr. Upshaw slapping Sam in the face and making his nose bleed. That was all against old man Upshaw. They didn't have any witnesses for old man Upshaw. Nobody would testify. All that bunch there testified for Sam. It cost the old man many a bottle of beer. Sam came just as clear as a whistle of that, because Judge Roy Bean had lots of friends. (footnote 16).

3. Cara Rae, in a 1998 memo to the Upshaw mail list, states "I visited Langtry, Texas, in March 1998 to "see where it all happened". I visited George Roane Upshaw's grave and found the lot where the Upshaw house once stood. The house next door to it is still standing and once was home to Charles Upshaw, G.R.'s son. As for Judge Roy bean's infamous "Jersey Lilly" saloon, the one that's there now is not the original. The original Jersey Lilly was burned to the ground after Sam Bean was acquitted of murdering George Roane Upshaw. There's been some speculation that "the Upshaw boys" did it in retaliation for their father's murder - knowing the family, it could be true."

26. 1878, 1 May, obituary:

Died - At his home in Walton County, Ga., on May 1st, 1878, Deacon Tinsley Upshaw, aged 82 years lacking one month and 3 days. Our aged brother has been a Baptist fifty three years, served the church many years as Clerk, and was baptized in the same county in which he died. In the division which took place between the Old and New School Baptists, our aged brother was led off into the ranks of the latter for a few years, but was never satisfied, and came back, lived devotedly, and was useful to the brotherhood generally. Our brother had been married three times, all his wives being Old School Baptists, and all his children who have a hope in Christ are united to the same church. He left thirteen living children, all being present at his burial but one. He lived to see his eighteenth child grown, and there were at his burial sixty-one of his descendants present. His death was very sudden, hence he was not allowed to speak in reference to it in his last moments. He had been having, awhile before his death, several attacks of something like apoplexy or paralysis. About fifteen minutes before he died he told his wife that he was going to have another one of those bad spells, and died without ever speaking again. Our brother's life and conversation leave no grounds to doubt but that he is now sleeping in Jesus.

May the Lord mercifully sustain our aged sister, the widow, and all his children and relatives, under this dispensation of his providence, and may it be sanctified to their good as well as to the large circle of friends and the brotherhood generally.

SECONDARY SOURCES:

1. Information by Cora Lou (Upshaw) Herndon (granddaughter of Forrest Tinsley Upshaw); Miscellaneous letters to Grace E. Jared. (originals in possession of Ted Brooke, Jan 1998).

2. The first Upshaws (spelled by some relatives as Upshur) to settle in Walton County made their homes in the First District near Mt. Paron Church four miles from Social Circle. On May 31, 1822, Richard Upshaw bought land from Edmund Elder in that district, acquiring 100 acres for $300. On Oct. 22, 1824, Adkins Upshaw bought 250 acres in the First District for $200. On Oct. 18, 1828, Adkins Upshaw deeded 135 acres in the First District to his brother, Tinsley Upshaw, for $120.

Tinsley Upshaw bought 250 acres Oct. 19, 1840 from Allen Chandler at $500. It lay in the Fourth District where Tinsley Upshaw and family moved after Tinsley sold his land in the First District. He also bought adjoining lands and continued his residence there throughout his life. He was 27 when he married Martha Phillips at Lexington in Oglethorpe County. He and his wife and her parents came to Walton and lived a number of years in Social Circle. Tinsley was a soldier in the War of 1812, but served only three months. Born in Elbert County, he enlisted there. Following service in 1814, he went to school in Lexington and boarded with his uncle, Richard Upshaw, whose wife was the former Rebecca Elder. Tinsley Upshaw was then for sometime a teacher in country schools. He and his wives were members of Mt. Paron and later Social Circle Baptist churches in the First District. In 1837, Tinsley and Francis Byrd Upshaw are listed as members of the then-new Baptist church in Social Circle.

The first record book of Mt. Paron Church was lost by a church clerk. Consequently, records are missing prior to 1880. In 1852, the Sardis Church records show that Tinsley Upshaw and his wife Frances joined there on confession of faith. The Baptists had been divided since the "Schism" occurring at an associational meeting in 1832 in Eatonton.

After the death of Tinsley Upshaw's first wife in 1829 or 1830, he married Frances Byrd in Walton County Sept. 26, 1831.

Children of Tinsley and Martha Phillips Upshaw were Emily, who married Elbert Ivey; Elizabeth, who married Preston Rutherford; and John Phillips, who married Mrs. Mary Stark Selman, widow of John Selman.

5. Forrest Tinsley Upshaw. Fifth in the Upshaw line was Forrest Tinsley Upshaw of Georgia. He was born in Elbert County, June 1, 1796, when George Washington was President of the United States., He lived in Oglethorpe County after the War of 1812, in which he served, having enlisted in 1814, when he was 18 years old. Many years later, the Daughters of the War of 1812 placed a marker at his grave sight (sic) on the property he had owned in Walton County.

Since he was a well educated man, he was sought out constantly to read or to write documents, witness various papers, etc. People would come for miles around to get his advice., Forrest Tinsley was always called Tinsley and after a few years stopped using the "Forrest". He signed his will simply Tinsley Upshaw, but his granddaughter, Frances Upshaw Barrett, remembers the family Bible and recalls his name written in a flowing hand "Forrest Tinsley Upshaw". Frances's father was Tinsley's youngest child, Preston Calhoun Upshaw. Tinsley was married three times and had eighteen children.

After the War of 1812, he went to Lexington in Oglethorpe County he finished his education and taught in country schools for a time. When his uncle, Richard Upshaw and his wife, the former Rebecca Elser, moved to Lexington, he lived with them. He was married to Martha Phillips in Lexington, 1823. They may have lived in Oglethorpe County for a while, but their son, John Phillips Upshaw, was born 28 December 1826, in Walton County, as were two daughters, Emily F. and Susan A. Upshaw.

When he and Martha removed to Walton, her parents went with them. Richard Upshaw, his uncle, and his brothers, Adkins and Hasten, also lived in Walton County in the late 1820s. In 1828, on October 18, Adkins deeded 135 acres in the 1st District to his brother, Tinsley, for $120.00. In a few years, Tinsley was the only Upshaw of the older generation remaining in Walton County. He moved to the 4th District of Walton, ca. 1852, and spent the rest of his life there. He had been a member of the Mt. Paran Baptist Church, then moved his membership to the Social Circle Baptist Church, since it was closer to his home which was about four miles from the town limits. Later, when he and his family removed to the 4th District, he was a member of the Sardis Church.

The record of Forrest Tinsley Upshaw's first marriage is found in Oglethorpe County Marriage Records, p. 148, (also this marriage is recorded on p. 205, Historical Collection of D.A.R. Vol. II (or V) 1949 John T. Hancock).

Children of Forrest Tinsley and Martha (Phillips) Upshaw.

Forrest Tinsley Upshaw was married to Martha Phillips on Jan. 23, 1823. She was born ca. 1800 and died ca. 1829. Their children:

I. Emily F. Upshaw, b. 1824, d. 27 July 1888 in Social Circle, Walton County; m. (1) Elbert Ivey 7 Apr 1842. Emily F. Upshaw m. (2) John (Jack) Herrin.

III. Elizabeth Upshaw, b. ca. 1828 in Walton Co.; m. Preston Rutherford.:

Children of Forrest Tinsley and Frances (Byrd) Upshaw.

Frances Byrd, born in 1810, was Forrest Tinsley's second wife. They were married 26 Sep 1831. In the compilation of the family record sheets, age order of birth of the children is incorrect. Mr. Ted Brooke gave me a copy of the 1850 Walton County census, which lists the children living at home as: Mary F., - 18 years old; Robert A. - 16; William T. - 11; Joseph A. - 10; George M. - 10; Susan A. - 7. Notice that Joseph A. and George M. are both listed as 10 years old. They were probably about a year apart. We have used these ages in giving the birth dates below:

IV. Mary Frances Upshaw, b. Aug. 1832, d. Apr. 1906, Loganville, Ga.; bur. in Shiloh Primitive Baptist Church cemetery. She was married twice, her first husband being James W. Tuck, who died during the War Between the States. He and Mary were married in 1852. They had seven children. Mary lost her husband James W. Tuck during the Civil War; in 1869 she married James R. Garrett.

V. Robert A. Upshaw, b. ca. 1834, d. 30 Mar. 1880, a soldier of the confederate Army, was married to Elizabeth (Betsy) Still in December 1854, when he was 20 years old.

VI. Thomas W. Upshaw, b. 1839.

VII. William Thomas Upshaw, b. 1839, d. 19 May 1862, Army Hospital in Richmond, Va.; m. Mary (Vaughn) Smith, a widow, 26 Feb 1860 (sic, 1860).

VIII. Joseph A. Upshaw, b. ca. 1840, d. before 1876.

IX. George M. Upshaw, b. ca. 1840, d. ca. 1893 in Villa Rica, Carroll Co, Ga. m. (1) Dorothy Hamby, daughter of Elder Isaac Hamby of Walton County. George m. (2) Pat Bridges.

X. Franklin Tinsley Upshaw, b. ca. 1847.

XI. Susan Antine Upshaw, b. 6 Jan 1843 (date as in 1850 Walton county census where she was listed as 7 years old). She was married 17 Dec 1866 to Confederate soldier Abner J. Stephens who died in Nov. 1892 and was buried in first New Hope Methodist Churchyard, Walton County. They had seven children.

XII. Benjamin Adkins Upshaw, b. ca. 1850, d. 1 Aug 1885; m. Susie Garrett.

XIII. A baby, name unknown, was a child of Forrest Tinsley Upshaw, either by Martha (Phillips) or by Frances (Byrd).

XIV. James Upshaw, born ca. 1852, was called Jimmie and drowned when about three years old and was buried in the family burial plot on Tinsley's property near Social Circle..

XV. James Berrien Upshaw, born 1 Sep. 1855, d. 3 May 1919 and was buried at Bay Creek Baptist Church yard.

Forrest Tinsley Upshaw was left with a five day old son, James Berrien, when Frances (Byrd) Upshaw, his second wife, died 6 Sep. 1855. His daughter, Mary, kept the baby until Tinsley remarried. His third wife, Judith M. England was born 7 Feb. 1821, according to her obituary.

Children of Forrest Tinsley and Judith (England) Upshaw:

Judith and Tinsley had three sons: Henry Clay Upshaw, Harrison Filmore Upshaw and Preston Calhoun Upshaw.

XVI. Henry Clay Upshaw, b. 20 Oct 1856, d. Aug 1924

XVII. Harrison Filmore Upshaw, was born at Between, Walton County, Georgia on 1 April 1858.

XIV. (sic, XVIII) Preston Calhoun Upshaw. Forest Tinsley and Judith (England) Upshaw's third son, and Tinsley's 18th child, was Preston Calhoun Upshaw, always called "Callie", born 24 May 1860.

8. 1855, 15 Nov: Morgan Co., Ga. October 22, 1855. Brother Beebe: According to the request of my dear brother, Tinsley Upshaw, I forward you the following obituary notice of the death of his wife, Frances Upshaw, for publication. Sister Upshaw was the daughter of Robert Bird and Mary Bird, formerly Mary Giles, of Wilkes Co., Ga. She was married on the 25th of September, 1831 and united shortly after with the church at Mount Paron, Walton Co., and was baptized by Elder William Lacy. Some time after removal she became a member of the church at Sardis, in the same county where she remained a pious, respected and orderly member till her death, which occurred on the 6th day of September last after a short but painful illness, as she died the sixth day after her delivery of her seventh child. We have every reason to believe her to have been one of the best of mothers, and indulgent mistress, and most agreeable companion, but she is gone and left nine children (one of them only six days old), her dear companion with many other friends and relatives to mourn their irreparable loss. The little church at Sardis can but mourn their great bereavement. James W. Walker. (Source: The Southern Baptist Messenger, issue of 15 November 1855, Vol. 5 no. 22).

SECONDARY SOURCE:

1. XIV. James Upshaw, born ca. 1852, was called Jimmie and drowned when about three years old and was buried in the family burial plot on Tinsley's property near Social Circle. His mother, Frances (Byrd) Upshaw, was so upset that Tinsley sold the farm and bought property near Sardis Church on the road from Monroe to Atlanta near the community of Between, in Walton County. The new owner of the farm near Social Circle promised to keep up the small graveyard and perhaps he did. Frances was expecting another baby and would not consider naming him - if it were a boy - "James", as Tinsley wished. They compromised by naming the baby "James Berrien" but calling him Berrien. 9. 1887, 4 June: Obituary of Judith M. Upshaw:
In Memory of Sister Judith M. Upshaw; from records of Sardis Primitive Baptist Church.
Sister Judith M. Upshaw departed this life June 4th, 1887 at age 66 years, three months and twenty five days. Sister Upshaw was the widow of our much esteemed Deacon Tinsley Upshaw who departed this life 9 years ago, May 1, 1878. She was formerly Miss Judith England.
Sister Upshaw died of cholera Infantum. In preparing these expressions, we are like we have been in former cases in speaking of loved ones who have been taken from our midst, therefore we feel a loss of language to express our high esteem and love we felt for Sister Upshaw discouraged us in the attempt to write. Suffice it to say that some of us have known Sister Upshaw as far back as our memory serves us, which is almost a half century, and among the many fault finders through our land and country, through her day and age of the world, not the first fault have we heard uttered or chargeable (sic) to her. What a comforting thought to be placed in memory of one we loved so well.
Sister Upshaw leaves three children and seven step-children to mourn their loss, but we feel that our loss is her Eternal gain. So we bow in humble submission to the Will of God, who works all things after the counsel of His own will. In closing this we wish to tender to her children, stepchildren and grandchildren our deep and heartfelt sympathy.
Memorial Committee, G. Durden, L.O. Brooks, J.C. Robertson.
(Notice - We have been told this Memorial was written by a dear friend and church sister, Mrs. John S. (Josephine) Dickinson. Elder M.F. Hurst was Church Pastor, and I think was present to conduct funeral services.)

remarried. his third wife, Judith M. England was born 7 February 1821, according to her obituary.

Mrs. Brumley Pritchett has tried to trace the Englands and made some progress through Mr. Gunter England who told her that Lucy N. England was married to James S. O'Kelley on 21 July 1845, Walton Co., Ga. He suggested Gordon County as a starter. Mrs. Pritchett found in the 1850 Gordon County census enumerated 7 Dec. 1850, the following from the 12th Division, pp. 52, 53:

Dwelling #599, Family #602: James Shelnut, b. S.C., age 48, farmer. Household: Jane Shelnut, female, age 20, b. Ga.; Mary Ann England, age 22.

Dwelling #600, Family #603: J.S. O'Kelley, age 26, male, farmer, b. Ga., Household: Lucy, age 23, female, b. Ga.; Sarah, age 4, female, b. Ga.; Charles, age 2, male, b. Ga.; James R., age 1, male, b. Ga.; Judith M. England, age 27, female, b. Ga.

From this source, we can calculate the approximate years of birth of the four England sisters:

1. Judith Margaret, the oldest, b. 1823 (see her obituary which reports her age as 66 years in 1887). One of the Walton County censuses, after she was married to Tinsley Upshaw, refers to her as Margaret.
2. Lucy, b. 1827, wife of J.S. O'Kelley.
3. Mary Ann, b. 1828, wife of _____ Blackwell.
4. Jane, b. 1830, wife of James Shelnut.

We know from this information, that there were at least four daughters in the England family - There were two Englands in the Cass County (Later Bartow) census of 1840: Abner England and Jonathan England, but so far these have not been tied in with our Judith Margaret.

Jane Shelnut and Mary Blackwell lived with Tinsley's youngest child - the eighteenth - Preston Calhoun Upshaw, for several years. They had been widowed and were considered elderly by that time. Preston Calhoun and his wife Lena were married 19 Dec. 1888; they cared for these aunts until their death.

Children of Forrest Tinsley and Judith (England) Upshaw:

Judith and Tinsley had three sons: Henry Clay Upshaw, Harrison Filmore Upshaw, and Preston Calhoun Upshaw.

8. 1860, 29 Oct: letter from J.H. Curry of Brush Valley, Bienville Parish, LA, to his sister-in-law, Amanda M. Cox of Walnut Creek, LA (note: this letter was printed in the "Upshaw Family Journal", vol. II page 47 & includes the following, which may be in reference to Tabitha (Lawless) Upshaw, although it could be in reference to Ann (Faulkner) Upshaw):

"Manda, old Mrs. Upshaw is dead. She died 22 of October."

(note: This reference to "Old Mrs. Upshaw" is interesting - Tabitha (Lawless) Upshaw would've been only about 60 years old in 1860 and not exactly what most people would call "old"; could this have possibly been in reference to Ann (Faulkner) Upshaw, wife of Forrester, who is thought to have died in Louisiana while visiting a son (according to Cora Lou Herndon), although no reference to her or Forrester has ever been found in Louisiana? Ann (Faulkner) Upshaw would've been about 85-90 years old in 1860, which sounds more like "Old Mrs. Upshaw"). If we knew how old J.H. Curry was when he wrote this in 1860, we would know his reference point for stating "Old Mrs. Upshaw"; it would make a large difference in his reference point whether he were a teenager or middle aged when he refers to someone as "old".

Haston Upshaw and Clarecy Whitsell had the following children:

520 i. (Haston, son of) Upshaw was born in 1818–1820 in Madison Co, Georgia. He appeared in the census in 1840 in Walton Co, Georgia. He was living in 1840. (Haston, was buried at an unknown cemetery. NOTES:

COMMENTS:

1. There is conjecture that "John R. Upshaw" was this unidentified son, which is due mainly to the comment by William D. Upshaw in his book "Echoes From a Recluse", page 453, in which he refers to "My Uncle, John R. Upshaw (now of Marble Valley, Shelby Co., Ala.)". If Apparently, this was an unfortunate use of words, as there is no evidence to support this relationship. The John R. Upshaw, born in 1830 and married Eliza F. Stamps in Coweta Co, GA, was the son of Adkin Upshaw, who later left his will in Carroll Co, GA, and named a son "John R. Upshaw". If "Eliza F. Stamps" & Adeline ("Addie") Stamps were sisters, John R. Upshaw would've been the uncle of William D. Upshaw by marriage. This John R. Upshaw did later live in Shelby Co, AL, died there 6 June 1898 and his widow, Eliza F. (Stamps) Upshaw, drew a Confederate Widow's pension. I believe I have seen tombstone inscriptions for them somewhere but cannot now locate them. There is no John R. Upshaw found in the Haston Upshaw estate papers as an heir or otherwise, although all the other children are. The unidentified male child, born 1818-1820, is not found in these papers either, but he could have died between 1840 and 1849.

- +521 ii. George F. Upshaw, born 1821, Madison Co, Georgia; married Frances E. Edwards, 19 Aug 1842, Walton Co, Georgia; died 1858–1860, Meriwether Co, Georgia.

Haston Upshaw and Rhoda Oglesby were married on 3 Aug 1823 in Elbert Co, Georgia. Rhoda Oglesby, daughter of George Oglesby and Elizabeth (Mrs. George) Oglesby, was born in 1806 in Georgia?. She appeared in the census in 1830 in Elbert Co, Georgia. She appeared in the census in 1840 in Walton Co, Georgia. Rhoda died on 19 Aug 1847 at the age of 41 in Coweta Co, Georgia. - 532 i. Sarah E.F. Upshaw lived in Coweta Co, Georgia from 1849 to 1850. She was born in 1849 in Coweta Co, Georgia. She appeared in the census in 1850 in Coweta Co, Georgia. Sarah was buried at an unknown cemetery.

2. 1850 census, Coweta Co, GA, page 359, dwelling #1068 (household of Martha Colley): Sarah E. Upshaw, age 1.

3. 1851, 13 Jan: Mary Upshaw petitions the court on behalf of her daughter, "Sarah E.F. Upshaw", stating that she is the orphan child of Haston Upshaw and should benefit from his estate (Coweta Co. Minutes Book C, page 53). Mary Upshaw was appointed guardian of Sarah E.F. Upshaw, 13 Jan 1851. (Coweta Co. Guardian Bonds book B, page 154). The 1850 Coweta Co. census (dwelling #1068) shows a "Sarah Upshaw", age 1, with Mary Upshaw; as there was some question as to the child's property right, Sarah was likely born after Haston's death. Sarah E. F. Upshaw was obviously the (only) daughter of Haston's third wife, Mary (Brooks) Upshaw (married 21 July 1848, Coweta Co.).

39. 1885, 25 Sep: "Carroll Free Press": DEAD
Mr. Adkin Upshaw died at his home near here, on last Tuesday, in the 85th year of his age. The deceased was well and favorably known throughout this county where he has lived since 1865.
"Uncle Adkin", as he was familiarly called, was born in Virginia but moved to Georgia when he was about 8 years of age. (TOB note: this is obviously in reference to the fact that his father Forrester was living in Pendleton District, South Carolina, in 1805 & 1806 and moved to Georgia about 1809). When about 35 years of age, he moved to Coweta (County) where his family was raised. In 1863 he moved to Heard County and in 1865 to this County to the place where he died.
The deceased was one of the leading members of the Primitive Baptist Church, in the faith of which he died. To the many relatives and friends in the County we extend our condolence.

44. 1885, 16 Oct: "Carroll County Times": Obituary.

Died, at his residence near Carrollton Sept. 22nd 1885, Adkin Upshaw, aged 84 yrs., 5 months, and 3 days.

He was born in Virginia, April 19th 1801. Moved to Georgia in 1809. Joined the Primitive Baptist Church at the age, 25. Lived a consistent member till death.

In the days of his strength, he had heard the preaching of Mosely, Henderson and others who had so successfully filled the pulpits of Georgia and so forcibly taught the doctrines of his Church.

Brought up under their teaching, it is not a matter of wonder, that he should have remained so firmly fixed in his faith. When Brother Upshaw joined the Church by the preaching of the Gospel wise men were made wiser, and bad men were made better. It was a time when the world was forced to acknowledge the divine power of the Gospel.

In the latter part of his life he, especially, devoted himself to the reading and study of the Bible. It was his comfort in this life and hope for the world to come. Quiescat in Pace. A Friend.

COMMENTS:

1. I have no proof that Richard Manary was the father of Edward; it is thought by some researchers, including Linda Teichman, that "Ignacious" & "Horseshoe Mary" Manary were his parents; more research is needed in Charles City Co, MD.

2. It is uncertain whether the correct spelling of this surname is "Manary" or "Manery"; can someone clarify?

At first I believed Andrew Wright Torbert was son of William Torbet and Rachel Wright. I still do not have enough proof but other researchers believe he was a son of Samuel Torbert, Jr., and Rachel Wright.

Samuel and Rachel may never have come to Tennessee but three of their children came to Monroe and McMinn Co. in the early 1830s. Their children are: 1. Samuel Cherry (24 Oct 1789 Ga-22 Aug 1855) Thomaston, Upson, Ga.) m. Mary; 2. John (27 Dec 1791 Abbeyville(sic), SC-7 Jan 1882 McM. Co. Tn.) m. Sarah then Elizabeth. 3. James (31 Jul. 1794 SC-1869 Macon,Al), m. Catherine I. Smith; 4. Rachel (1796 SC-1837)m. Alexander Rider, both are buried Sink Cem., Tellico Plains, Monroe Co, Tn.; Andrew Wright (1801 SC-14 Feb 1871) buried Madisonville City cem., Madisonville, Tn. m ca. 1830 Monroe Co., Tn., or Ga. to Nancy Upshaw (1806 Ga.-1896) the dau. of William(sic) Upshaw and Ann Forkner, and is buried with Andrew; 6. Lemuel (1802 SC-Jul. 1868 Upson, Ga.) m. Martha C. Glanton;

7. George Thompson (26 Oct 1803 SC-19 Dec 1865 Ga), m. in Oglethorpe, Ga. to Anna Hardeman; 8. Benjamin Franklin (3 May 1809 Pendleton Dist, SC-16 Mar 1896 Greensboro, Greene Co., Ga) m. ca 1833 Butts Co, Ga, to Mary E. McCoy.

First land records show Andrew Wright Torbert in 1834 at Madisonville Court House. I have not found him in the 1830 census. Their home stood where Lowry's store is or, rather, was. He carried mail between Madisonville and Sweetwater, Monroe Co., Tn. Sent to me was the original deed of 1862 when Andrew gave Negro slave to his daughter Minerva Peck. For Andrew and Nancy no marriage record has been found. Their children are: 1. Emily Josephine (27 Oct 1831-12 May 1904)m. ca 1847 to Lewis Hunt, both buried Madisonville City Cemetery; 2. Minerva Ann (24 Mar 1833-18 Nov 1866) m. 28 June 1858 to Joseph Alexander Peck, both buried Sink Cemetery, Tellico Plains, Monroe Co., Tn.; 3. Sarah E. (22 Jun 1836-11 Oct 1874) Loudon Co, Tn., and buried Madisonville City Cemetery, m. Col. Wesley C.P. Jones. (submitted by: Katrina Jean Semones, 3rd great granddaughter of Andrew W. Torbert; compiled by: Mary Louise Hunt Semones, P.O. Box 658, Etowah, NC 28729).

COMMENTS:

1. His house in Madisonville stood where Lowry's store now is; (per R. E. Torbert, 1985)
2. Early land plats of McMinn/Monroe cos, TN, shows: In township four, range two east of meridian: John Torbert (anc of Shirley Harper) had land in section 6 & 7 (McMinn Co), and Peter Upshaw has contiguous land purchased in 1820 & 1827. SECONDARY SOURCES:

1. Personal knowledge of Mr. W. Roy Upshaw, Waco, Texas, from his father, Leroy C. Upshaw.
2. VIII. Middleton Upshaw (5th generation from Capt. William Upshaw, Sr.), b. 1816 in Elbert County. We know little about this Middleton Upshaw, but he also is listed in the 1850 Meriwether Co. census as living in dwelling #418, 34 years old. A large family was listed giving "Forrester" as the name of his second male child. (Source: Sophie W. Upshaw, "Captain William Upshaw, Gent. Planter of Virginia and Allied Families" (Baltimore, MD: Genealogical Publishing Co., 1975), page 32).

COMMENTS:

1. Middleton Upshaw had no military service record or pension for any military service.
2. Lived in Tallapoosa Co, AL, from 1860s to 1883 (need to research Tallapoosa Co, AL, deeds for exact dates).
3. Need to search 1883 newspapers and the New Hope Baptist Church minutes (if they survive) for a possible obituary of him which may contain more biographical information.
4. The only other possibility for the father of Middleton, other than Forrester Upshaw, is Richard Upshaw Sr., son of Leroy Upshaw (RS). Richard Upshaw Sr. had a male under 10 years old in his household in 1820 Elbert Co., page 162. Also, in 1830 Walton Co, GA, census, page 158, Richard Upshaw has 1 male born 1815-1820. Richard Upshaw Sr. evidently died in Walton Co., GA, between 1830 & 1840, although no estate or other evidence of his death has been found.

22. Family tradition is that Amelia died as a result of being kicked by a cow she was milking when the rest of the family was away, as she could barely see, probably resulting from cataracts. This was told to Mr. Joe Mathis, Waller, TX (desc of Amelia) by his grandfather John Franklin Dobbs.

COMMENTS:

1. It is not certain that Mary ("Polly") Upshaw is daughter of Parson Upshaw; it is only circumstantial at this point, as Parson was the only Upshaw of the correct age to be her father, who was in the immediate area of Blount County, although we have never found Parson actually in Blount County, Tennessee about 1820. We only know that he was in Roane Co, TN, shortly before 1811. Additional research is underway either to locate some mention of Parson in Blount Co. in 1819-1821, or to find obituary for Mary (Upshaw) Starr which might give more information.

(pages 42-49): My Maternal Grandfather.

I have always found my grandfather Upshaw's name written simply George W. Upshaw. This was true on his two marriage licenses, his legal permit to practice medicine in the state of Illinois, his record in the family Bible, and various Federal Census records. One time, on an ancient record, I found it written George Augustis - but there were many errors in the record, so it must have been one of them.

(note: the lineage given in this source is incorrect; George Augustus Upshaw was the son of Edwin Upshaw, not George W. Upshaw; George W. & Parson were in Jackson Co, IL, together circa 1829; George W. consistently gave his birthplace as Georgia on the 1850, 1860 & 1870 censuses, and George A. consistently gave his birthplace as Virginia and even specified "Essex County, Virginia" in his Mexican War discharge paper)

His birth date was hard to determine. On his first marriage record to Mary Malinda Greenwood at Shawneetown [it] is not given. On his second marriage record to my Grandmother Elizabeth Denby at Peoria, Illinois, on Nov. 13, 1848, he states age unknown, which probably accounts for all the different dates of his birth on record.

The Jackson County, Ill. Federal Census records of 1830, gives his birth from 1800 to 1810. The 1850 census records of Peoria, Ill. states he was born in 1805. I did not find his census records for 1860, but the 1870 Federal Census records of Cerro Gordo, Ill. give the year as 1801.

After his death, Grandmother Elizabeth wrote in the family Bible, "Dr. George W. Upshaw died on the 3'd of September 1875 in his 75th year."

In 1961, I had a tombstone put on his grave in the old Cerro Gordo, Ill. cemetery and gave his birth year as 1802-1805. However, since then, I was sent an aged ledger sheet by a cousin, Mrs. Mary Rumsey of Oklahoma City, Okla., which was written by some descendant (name not given) of her grandmother, Mary Ann Upshaw Blake, sister of Dr. George Upshaw, in which his birth was given as August 20, 1802. This I believe to be correct. This date was accepted on my D.A.R. record.

Finding the state of his birth was not easy, either. His eldest son, Francis Marion (Frank) Upshaw, left the record that his father was born in Mississippi. His second son, George Washington Upshaw Jr., gave it as Tennessee. His son, Thomas, didn't know. His Census record gave his birthplace as Georgia, so it was to Georgia I went first for records. (Editor's note: Dr. George W. Upshaw consistently and conclusively gave Georgia as his birthplace on all three - 1850, 1860 & 1870 - censuses).

There were Upshaws in Elbert County, Georgia, as early as 1790, when "Le Roy Upshaw, self and 15 in family" settled there. Le Roy appears to have been the son of Forrest and Ann (Hunt) Upshaw.

I spent over 10 years tracing every Upshaw in Georgia. They left plenty of historical records, wills and census records, and land grants to prove my grandfather was not born in Georgia and that he was not a descendant of Forrester Upshaw. In 1802 he couldn't have been born in Tennessee or Mississippi either. There was really not much of any Mississippi in 1802, certainly no records as it wasn't even a state then.

I traced the Upshaws in Giles County, Tennessee carefully, as they were the descendants of Jeremiah Upshaw (brother of Forrester) of Virginia. In fact, I traced the entire State of Tennessee for him, with no results whatsoever.

But I did find my maternal grandfather, George Upshaw, in Virginia. After he left Virginia in 1819 or 1820, it seems reasonable to suppose he spent some time in Giles County, Tennessee with Upshaw relatives. But I think that most of his time was spent in Elbert County, Georgia living with numerous relatives, descendants of his great uncle Forrester Upshaw.

The proud spirit of Grandfather Upshaw evidently never recovered from his trouble with his stepmother so he evidently chose Georgia as his home state. The only record I have of Dr. George W. Upshaw leaving his Virginia home was written by his niece Alice Upshaw Blake (Mrs. J.D. Baker). daughter of his sister, Mary Ann, in her memoirs she writes:

"My grandfather (Edwin Upshaw) was a member of the Virginia Assembly for a number of years ... He remained a widower for 8 years after my grandmother (Lucy Roane) died; he finally remarried, so he would leave the children with the stepmother while in Richmond. Now the stepmother had a "mammy" who was almost white, while the "mammy" to the first lot of children was very black. Well, one day my Uncle George, who was a lad of 18, came home and found the stepmother's "mammy" whipping the black "mammy", which aroused a furious anger in him. He jumped off his horse, took the whip from "mammy" No. 2, and proceeded to chastise her. He whipped her severely. Then the stepmother called the overseer to whip Uncle George. They had a fight, and when it was over Uncle George jumped on his horse and left home, never to return. When my grandfather (Edwin Upshaw) heard of it, his first thought was to find him ... but he could not prevail on him to return to Virginia."

Forming an opinion 142 years later, it would indicate that the lad had a fierce maternal love for the Negro mammy who raised him, and this strong emotion may have made his punishment of the offending negro a little too severe.

But the master of the house, alone, was responsible for the behavior of his slaves, and as eldest son in his father's absence, George was the master.

Neither the stepmother or the overseer had any authority to punish him. The fact that his stepmother did make this attempt, indicates past conflicts.

It was a soul shattering insult to the pride of a young southern gentleman. The spirit of many generations of challenge meeting Upshaws, and the blood of the turbulent politically minded Roanes, flowed strongly in his veins. He was the descendent of men who had fought and died, when necessary, for their integrity and it left [a] deep emotional scar on his life.

Mama told me her father was a man of mild temperment, except when aroused by an injustice. Then he was absolutely independent and fearless in his defense of the right. The above incident shows this characteristic.

He was fiercely opposed to slavery, not because their Negroes were mistreated. In his world he maintained they were like spoilt indulged children. He said "mixing the races and bringing mulatto children into the world was its biggest curse."

So the wound went deep and Grandfather George, as far as I could find out, never discussed his life in Virginia with even his own household.

As Edwin's son he was well educated, probably by private tutors. He was also a student by nature, and mother said he debated a long time on whether to practice law or medicine.

I have a feeling he was self-taught in medicine, for I have never been able to find out where, how or when he received a medical education, although I have contacted every available source in many states. From some things my mother told me, he did practice some in Georgia and Tennessee before he came to Illinois. Really it didn't take much preparation to be an M.D. over 100 years ago. Drugs were few, and things like cherry tree bark, tansey and senna had to be collected and prepared by the physician. Mama said her father boiled these herbs and also made bread pills by hand for his patients.

The first authentic history I have of Grandfather Upshaw after he left Virginia, picks him up some five or six years later at Shawneetown (named after the Shawnee Indians) in Gallatin County, Illinois.

Here, on January 16, 1825, he married "small, beautiful and dainty" (from family records) Mary Malinda Greenwood. This marriage record was destroyed by the floods of Shawneetown, but can be found at the Illinois Historical Library, Springfield, in a record compiled by Lucy Bender.

I have not traced the ancestry of Mary Malinda Greenwood. But Greenwoods lived in King & Queen County, Va. not far from George Upshaws boyhood home. Also we find the Forrest Upshaw line married into the Greenwood family in Elbert County, Georgia, where Grandfather lived when he left Virginia. Richard Upshaw, a cousin, married Elizabeth Bradley (See will, Elbert Co., Ga., 1805 of William Bradley). (Editor's note: It was Leroy Upshaw who married Elizabeth Bradley in 1769, Bedford Co, Va.) Elizabeth Bradley Upshaw had two daughters, Nancy and Martha Upshaw, who married Greenwoods and were mentioned in their grandfather's will. Either could have been the mother of Mary Malinda Greenwood. Also, in [on] Aug. 16, 1803, the Elbert Co., Ga., will of Webb Kidd, who was in some way related to the Jeremiah Upshaw line, mentions his granddaughter "Polly" Greenwood (mother, Lucy Greenwood). This Polly could well have been Mary Malinda Greenwood, grandfather's first wife. So it seems likely that Grandfather George held to family traditions and also married one of his cousins.

I found many Greenwoods and a Parson and James Upshaw living in Gallatin County. In 1825, Illinois was only seven years old and Shawneetown's first settlers boasted many of the finest families of the south and east.

Gen LaFayette visited Shawneetown on May 14, 1825. It is reasonable to suppose that on that day George and his wife, M. Malinda, stood in the double line of welcome, extending from the boat where the distinguished party landed, upon a calico covered path strewn with flowers to Rawling's Tavern. There was a salute of 24 guns, and a reception and dinner following. Names of the attendants have not been preserved, but family tradition would imply that George Upshaw and his bride were honored guests.

Federal Census records show Grandfather residing in Jackson County, Illinois in 1830, and gives his family, besides his wife, as two daughters. In August, 1830, he was an unsuccessful candidate for County Commissioner.

Their eldest child was Narcissa Ann, born May 5, 1826. [She] married May 4, 1843 William L. Loomis, Ohio, born May 13, 1821. I find them living in Peoria, Illinois (where they no doubt were married) in the Federal Census of 1850, also I find her father and his family. The book "Loomis Family in America" 1908 gives the following list of William Loomis and Narcissa Upshaws nine children:

Some Descendants of Jeremiah Upshaw

19 April 2018

- a) Edgar F., born June 11, 1844, D. Feb. 5, 1848, Peoria.
- b) Luella N. (Narcissa) born Dec. 10, 1846; m. June 8, 1865, Elizah Lewis.
- c) Frank P., born Feb. 10, 1849.
- d) Edward L., born Feb. 1, 1851.
- e) Ida E., born Feb. 1, 1853; m. Mch. 2, 1871, Henry Swinhart.
- f) William L. (Loomis), born Feb. 3, 1855.
- g) Lyman U. (Upshaw), born Aug. 2, 1857.
- h) Jesse, born Mch. 4, 1860, D. June 1860.
- i) Blanche, born Feb. 26, 1861.

Sometime after 1850, this Loomis family moved to Abilene, Kansas, then to New York some say, but I have not verified the latter location. I have given much research to this family, but while I found Loomis relatives who helped me find their record in "The Loomis family in America" 1903, I have never been able to contact any of their descendants, who of course are all descendants of Dr. George W. Upshaw.

George and Mary Malinda Upshaw's second child was Melissa Jane, born Feb. 7, 1828. In November 1851, she married Charles Loomis, a brother of her sister Narcissa's husband. Charles was born Feb. 5, 1826, died June 6, 1856 at Peoria, Illinois. They had one child, Mary Malinda, (Melie) born Sept. 12, 1852, died 1877, married John Rogers, no issue.

Melissa Jane (Upshaw) Loomis married 2nd, Grover. No issue.

I have been told by a member of the family who knew them, that both Narcissa and Melissa were beautiful women and looked like the Upshaws.

George and Mary Malinda Upshaw also had three sons, namely: Francis Marion (Frank), George Washington, and Thomas Jefferson, of whom more later.

It seems Mary Malinda Greenwood Upshaw died in 1846 or 1847, but all early tombstones have been destroyed in Peoria and no record is left.

On November 12, 1848, Peoria, Ill. (Book 1, page 151) the marriage record of George W. Upshaw, age unknown, and Elizabeth Denbigh (Denby) 28 years. John Chandler, M.G (Methodist Presiding Elder) is recorded. This marriage date is also copied in the Family Bible which is in possession of their son, John Upshaw descendants.

My grandparents, George and Elizabeth had 7 children and they buried 5 of them. Only my mother and her brother, John were left. (this John's descendants are the ones who own the family Bible.)

This Upshaw Bible gives their family births and deaths written in many different handwritings as follows:

- 1) James Bengemin (sic), B. March 19, 1849, D. September 5, 1851.
- 2) Emma Frances, B. August 13, 1851, M. Joseph Ross Liken, Oct. 10, 1868, D. March 9, 1870.
- 3) Katie Denby, B. Nov. 14, 1854, D. Feb. 2, 1870.
- 4) Joshephine Eva, B. Sept. 3, 1857, D. July 18, 1910. (This is my mother, her name was misspelled and written in a different handwriting. Her date of birth was written 1858, then erased and made 1857, (which is correct). She married Adam P. Heminger, Dec. 24, 1877.
- 5) John Wesley, B. October 7, 1859, M. Ella V. Ogle, Aug. 9, 1883. D. March 31, 1942, at McPherson, Kansas.
- 6) Ida Virginia, B. March 27, 1862, D. November 12, 1862.
- 7) William Loomis, B. September 12, 1863, D. June 6, 1870.

My mother and her brother, John always gave their birthplace as Jerseyville, Ill. Mama said her father owned and operated a general store there and that on the day of her birth, Sept. 3, her half brothers, George and Thomas, were sent to this store and instructed to select a set of dishes for the family, to keep them out of the way during the birth of their new sister. (She was probably delivered by her father). I have one plate of this set yet. It is white stoneware type and there is an odd figured and lettered trade mark and the indented words " T & R Boore, Syndenham, Shape I. However, I have visited Jerseyville, read its old histories, looked up county records, seen Federal Census records and have found absolutely no record to show the Upshaws ever lived in Jerseyville. But the above locality was given on mother's and her brother's death records. (Editor's note: see 1860 Federal census, Stark Co, Illinois, West Jersey township, page 77, 4 June 1860, where family of G.W. Upshaw is enumerated).

Mama said her father, besides being a storekeeper, fitted glasses and did dental work. She said he was a poor businessman, and lost his business by signing a note for a relative. It would indicate he inherited some money and lost it.

2. Note written by Grace Jared on undated family group sheet:

"During these ten years (1830-1840) there may have been a number (about 5) of births & deaths (of children) as I have been told my grandfather had a total of 17 children by his two wives".

NOTES:

1. For a photograph of George W. Upshaw, see Grace Jared, "They Met Challenges ... With Memoirs", Grace Jared, Ann Arbor, MI, 1968, page 68.)

COMMENTS:

1. His middle name was likely "Washington", although I don't believe it has ever been proven. There is a possibility that his son, George W. Upshaw Jr. may have spelled his middle name out, with "Jr.", which would be proof of "Washington".

2. No reference to (any) Upshaw in the following Gallatin Co, IL, published records: "Gallatin County, Illinois Will Record I. November 1814-January 1847"; "Gallatin County, Illinois Court Records 1813-1820" & "Early Gallatin County, Illinois Probates Vol. 1".

George W. Upshaw M.D. and Mary Melinda Greenwood were married on 16 Jan 1825 in Shawneetown, Gallatin Co, Illinois. Mary Melinda Greenwood, daughter of James Greenwood and (James, wife of) Greenwood, was born in 1805-1810 in Elbert Co, Georgia. She appeared in the census in 1820 in Gallatin Co, Illinois. She lived in Gallatin Co, Illinois in 1826. Mary appeared in the census in 1830 in Jackson Co, Illinois. She appeared in the census in 1840 in Peoria Co, Illinois. She died in 1844-1848 at the age of 39 in Peoria? Co, Illinois. Mary was buried at an unknown cemetery in Peoria? Co, Illinois.

DOCUMENTATION & NOTES:

1. Mary Melinda Greenwood was circumstantially a daughter of James Greenwood as she was married in 1825 in Gallatin Co, Illinois, where James Greenwood is the only Greenwood in the 1820 census. No estate or probate records have yet been found for James Greenwood identifying his heirs.

2. 1805-1810: Birth date calculated from age of 10-15 as given in 1820 census of James Greenwood household in Gallatin Co, Illinois; Mary Melinda was married in 1825 when she was obviously of marriageable age. The 1830 & 1840 censuses show that she was born between 1801 & 1810.

3. 1820 (Federal) census, Gallatin Co, Illinois, page 45: James Greenwood household: 1 male under 10; 1 male 10-15; 1 male 16-25; 1 male over 45; 3 females under 10; 1 female 10-15; 1 female 26-44. (Note: the one female, age 10-15 (born 1805-1810) may be Mary Malinda Greenwood; note that Gallatin Co., Illinois, is the county where Mary Melinda Greenwood married George Upshaw in 1825; marriages in that era were normally held at the bride's residence).

5. 1830 census, Jackson Co, IL, page 89, line 34: "George Upshaw": household 1 male 20-30, 1 female 20-30 (Mary Melinda); 2 females under 5 (Narcissa Ann and Melinda Jane).

6. 1840 census, Peoria Co, IL, Peoria Precinct, page 29: George M.(sic) Upshaw: 1 male under 5 (George W. Upshaw); 2 females 10-15 (Narcissa Upshaw & Melissa Upshaw); 1 male 5-10 (Francis Marion Upshaw); 1 female 30-40 (Mary (Greenwood) Upshaw); 1 male 20-30 (George W. Upshaw); (incorrect; should be 30-40)

7. Notes from descendant Robert Upshaw in March 2008, 4204 Stonehaven Way, Fredericksburg, VA, 22408:

There is undocumented information that Mary Malinda Greenwood was a child of James Greenwood, who they say was born in Buckingham Co., Virginia, in 1785, son of John W. Greenwood, Jr., born 9 Aug 1747 in Middlesex Co., Virginia and Anna Bates, born 1741 in New Kent Co., Virginia. They say that James Greenwood was a brother of George C. Greenwood who married Martha Upshaw and lived next door to Parson Upshaw and his family in 1820 (census) Montgomery Co., Tennessee. This would lend credibility to the assumption that Mary Malinda Greenwood and George W. Upshaw would have known each other in Tennessee before Parson moved his family to Illinois. It would also help explain why Mary Malinda (Greenwood) Upshaw traveled from Peoria, Illinois to Tennessee where she had family, to have her first two children. Travel that far in those days for a pregnant woman would not have been easy. They have no information about James Greenwood's wife, so that is still a dead end and Mary Malinda's mother could have been Indian, making Mary Malinda a halfblood but, because her son Thomas Jefferson Upshaw repeatedly insisted that he was half Indian, the possibility exists that Mary Malinda was a fullblood, adopted by James Greenwood and whoever his wife was. If she also was an Indian that would have made it easy for her to know of and adopt a fullblood child, or perhaps Mary Malinda was her child before she married James Greenwood.

(Additional notes by RWU, February 2011):

I do not know why Thomas Jefferson Upshaw's birth state would be shown as "Tennessee" in the 1870 census, because it is shown as "Illinois" in all other references that I have seen. We know that Mary Malinda (Greenwood) Upshaw returned to HER family (?) in Tennessee for the birth of her first three children, i.e., Francis Marion, Narcissa and Melissa, so perhaps that is where the confusion occurred. I have run into Greenwood researchers who show she was the daughter (or at least in the family of) a James Greenwood, son of John W. Greenwood, Jr., (1747-1796) and Anna Bates. But they have had no more success than I have had in tracing Mary Melinda's mother. Since T.J. Upshaw claimed she was a full-blood Indian, my theory remains that James Greenwood adopted her. If James were actually her father, that would make her a "half-blood" and TJU "one-fourth".

George W. Upshaw and Mary Melinda Greenwood had the following children:

Secondary Sources:

1. On his (George W. Upshaw) second marriage record my grandmother Elizabeth Denby at Peoria, Illinois, on Nov. 13, 1848, he states age unknown, which probably accounts for all the different dates of his birth on record. (Source Grace Jared, "They Met Challenges ... With Memoirs" (Ann Arbor, MI: privately printed, 1968), page 42):.

2. On November 12, 1848, Peoria, Ill. (Book 1, p. 151) the marriage record of George w. Upshaw, age unknown, and elizabeth Denbigh (Denby), 28 years. John Chandler M.G. (Methodist Presiding elder) is recorded. This marriage date is also copies in the Family Bible which is in possession of their son, John Upshaw descendants.

My grandparents, George and elizabeth had 7 children and they buried 5 of them. Only my mother and her brother, John were left. (this John's descendants are the ones who own the Family Bible.)

3. My mother told me often that her Denby mother's name in England was spelt Denbigh, and I found that on her parents marriage certificate, idssued Nov. 12, 1848, in Peoria, Ill., Elizabeth Denbigh, age 28 years, and George W. Upshaw, age unknown. However, Grandma Denby Upshaw herself wrote her name as Denby in the Family Bible (printed in 1848) which I have personally seen and copied carefully. (Source Grace Jared, "They Met Challenges ... With Memoirs" (Ann Arbor, MI: privately printed, 1968), page 49).

4. 3. Elizabeth Denby, my grandmother, probably named Elizabeth after her father, James Denby's mother, was born Oct. 7, 1820 in Norfolk, Va., and died at Cerro Gordo,, Ill. October 17, 1882. She married my grandfather Dr. George W. Upshaw at peoria, November 13, 1848. They had seven children, of whom more later.

When I had a marker put on grandmother, Elizabeth Denby Upshaw's grave, i gave the year of her birth as 1820, taking it from her marriage certificate. But other records have not agreeds, the 1850 Federal Census record gives her birth year as 1821, I have not found her 1860 census records, but the 1870 Census records her birth in 1825, and the 1880 ones, give the year 1818. Then, on her death record of 1882, the year is given as 1824. It seems, in spite of all rthese conflicting data, the year 1820 should be correct.

The pension applications to which this index applies relate chiefly to Army, Navy and Marine Corps service performed between 1861 and 1916. Most of the records relate to Civil War service; some relate to earlier service by Civil War veterans; others relate to service in the Spanish-American War, the Philippine Insurrection, the Boxer Rebellion, and the Regular Establishment. Richard Upshaw, born 1780-1790 (this is evidently Richard "Sr.")

one unknown male, born 1815-1820

one female, born 1800-1810 (this could have been Rebecca (Elder) Upshaw, as Richard Upshaw Jr. was gone, as he did not report his own taxes in 1831)

1. Children are assigned to this family with the assumption that only the children born after 1820 listed in the 1830 Walton Co, GA, census (page 158) and 1840 Walton Co, GA, census (page 120), in the household of "Richard Upshaw", are those of Richard Upshaw, Jr..

(Note by descendant & Upshaw researcher Mr. Tim Hudson in 2011): "I'm convinced that Rebecca Elder Upshaw was listed twice on the 1860 Union Parish census. There are several situations like this in 1860 Union parish. On the first, (dwelling #685) notice that Rebecca is listed with William Elisha and Jonathan Upshaw as well as Mary Upshaw, a woman I cannot identify (perhaps an unmarried daughter of Richard Upshaw and his first wife, or a widow of a male Upshaw relative?). Next door is Ed Upshaw (age 19) and wife; I assume this is her son, Edmund Upshaw.
In the second listing (dwelling #703) M.E. Upshaw is age 26, listed with "R. Upshaw" (female) who I think is Rebecca, as well as "J. Upshaw". who I think is Jonathan. I do find it odd that the initials are "M.E." and not correctly "W.E.". This is undoubtedly William Elisha Upshaw first (recorded as "M.E."), Rebecca and Jonathan. I say this because William Elisha Upshaw is the only male Upshaw living in Union Parish who owned real estate, other than Alexander Wilson Upshaw (whose family was missed by the 1860 census enumerator). William E. and Jonathan jointly purchased land from their brother in the year 1860.

2. 1830 census, Walton Co, GA, page 158 (Richard Upshaw Sr. Household): 1 unidentified female under 5.

3. 1840 census, Walton Co, GA, page 120 (Richard Upshaw household): there is no female in the household age 10-15 (b 1825-1830); was she also living with relatives in 1840?

4. Rebecca "Ann" Upshaw. At this point, there is absolutely no evidence that her middle name was "Ann". In fact, I doubt that it was "Ann." Her mother had several sisters with unusual middle names, and several of Rebecca's grand daughters remember being told her name as a child and they agree it was something unusual. However, none of them really know what it was.

6. 1862, 29 July:

Died in the _____ Hospital, Charleston, S.C., July the 18th in the 22nd year of his age, John W. Upshaw, of Union Parish, Louisiana.

The subject of this sketch was a native of Georgia, but was removed in his youth and attained to mature years in the first named State. He was a soldier in the Confederate service for a year prior to his death, he having volunteered at the commencement of the war, serving a short period at Camp Moore, near New Orleans, Louisiana, in a company subsequently disbanded, and then joining Company D, 4th Louisiana Battalion.

This Battalion, after their campaign in Western Virginia, having been ordered to the coast of this State, were sent to aid in the defence [sic] of Charleston. In the engagement which ensued on James Island, the subject of our notice was so severely wounded in one of his legs as to render amputation necessary - this he never survived. but lingered to the above date when he expired. He professed religion some years ago, and united himself to a Baptist church. His prospects for the future, in view of his approaching end, may be seen from an extract taken from a letter, communicating his death to the writer of this notice:

"I am sorry to announce to you the death of our beloved brother Upshaw, who departed this life, in hope of a better, on the night of the 18th, in Charleston, S.C. He sent word for us to do better, and prepare to meet him in glory. I trust these words will be stamped on our hearts, and that our memories will bear in mind our friend, who, without doubt, now seeth not as through a glass darkly, but enjoys the presence of the Lord, face to face, where he can join in praise with those who have gone before. "Physically, brother Upshaw was strong and active. Mentally, those who knew him thought he possessed intelligence superior to his advantages. What he was as a Christian, we who do not see the heart do not wholly know.

He is now before the Great Judge of all - far above the mists and doubts which obscure the judgment of men. But this we know, that even if he had some infirmities, he evinced a disposition to serve his Maker, and was seldom indifferent to the subject of religion. In view of these considerations, those who survive him have "hope in his death."

Davis and Cynthia settled in Upper Fox Creek in the vicinity of Falling Spring on land that became part of Douglas County in 1857. Mr. Burton, from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following Report (To accompany H.R. 8576).

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H.R.8576) granting a pension to John S. Upshaw, have examined the same and report:

The report of the Committee on Invalid Pensions of the House of Representatives, hereto appended, is adopted and the passage of the bill as amended by the House committee is recommended.

The House report is as follows:

This bill proposes to pension John S. Upshaw, late captain of Douglas County, Mo., Home Guards, and late a private in J. Jay's company, Missouri Volunteers, Osage Indian war of 1837, at $50 per month. No claim has ever been filed in the Pension Bureau by the beneficiary named in this bill.

It appears from a certificate of the adjutant-general of the State of Missouri, filed with your committee, that John S. Upshaw was commissioned as a captain in the Douglas County, Mo., Home Guards on July 28, 1861, and that he served until October 13, 1861.

The records of the War Department show that the Hawkins Taylor Commission under the joint resolutions of Congress of July 12, 1862, and February 16, 1863, allowed pay to John S. Upshaw as captain of an independent cavalry company, Douglas County, Mo., Home Guards, for the period of one month and fifteen days as actual military services rendered the United States, which service was rendered between July 28 and October 13, 1861.

That Department further reported that there was no record of Captain Jay's company of Missouri volunteers during the Osage Indian war of 1837.

There has also been filed with your committee the certificate of the clerk of the county court of Douglas County, Mo., setting forth that the name of John S. Upshaw was borne upon the rolls of the inmates of the county poor farm of Douglas County, Mo.; that said Upshaw is now, and has been for a long time past, an inmate of that poor farm, and supported by the county as a pauper, and that there was no one legally bound for his support.

Title to pension under the act of June 27, 1890, could not obtain in this case for the reason that the officer did not serve ninety days during the war of the rebellion.

There has also been filed with your committee the following statement of Hon. W.D. Vandiver, the member who introduced this bill: Washington, May 2, 1902.

Gentlemen: I desire to submit a brief statement of the condition of Capt. John S. Upshaw, the proposed beneficiary in H.R. bill 8576.

His military service commenced in the Osage Indian war of 1837, but the War Department has no record of any service in that war. His service in the civil war is on record, but is not sufficient to entitle him to pension under existing law, because a portion of his service was not credited on record, and because a portion of it was in a State organization. But his own company of independent home guards rendered important service along the southern border of Missouri in 1862.

His physical condition is such that he is totally disabled from rheumatism, diarrhea, and loss of sight, being almost blind. He is now over 80 years old, very weak, and almost entirely helpless. I have seen him myself within the last year, and his condition excited pity.

I am also reliably informed that his financial condition is very pitiable; that he once occupied a position as a prominent business man in his county, an influential citizen in comfortable circumstances, but is now reduced to extreme poverty, and is being supported by the charity of the county as an inmate of the county poor farm.

Hoping this statement, with the official statements of his record, will warrant favorable action by the committee, I remain, Very respectfully, W.D. Vandiver.

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, House of Representatives.

In view of the circumstances set forth above, your committee believes that the requirement of ninety days' service during the war of the rebellion may well be waived in this case, and that relief to the extent of granting to the beneficiary the maximum rating under the act of June 27, 1890, namely, $12 per month, should be granted, and the bill is therefore reported back with the recommendation that it pass after the same shall have been amended as follows:

Strike out after the enacting clause and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby authorized and directed to place on the pension roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of John S. Upshaw, late captain Independent Cavalry Company, Douglas County, Missouri, Home Guards, and pay him a pension at the rate of twelve dollars per month."

Upshaw, better known as "Uncle Severe," at the residence of Mrs. Mary Brown 3 1/2 miles south of Ava, on Friday, Jan. 20, 1911. "Uncle Severe was born in Tennessee May 28, 1813, and in all probability was the oldest man in the county. Mr. Upshaw has spent the greater portion of his life in Douglas county. In an early day he owned and cultivated one of the best farms in Douglas county, located on Fox creek near Denlow.

After farming successfully for a number of years he embarked in the Mercantile business and was one of the leading merchants of Denlow for over 20 years. "Uncle Severe" built the flouring mill at Denlow and sold same to Wilson and Curnutt. Mr. Upshaw was a devoted christian, being a member of the M.E. church. So zealous was he for the work of the Master that he built a church house at his own expense and donated it to M.E. people.

It will be remembered by his many friends that Mr. Upshaw was at one time one of the wealthiest men in the county.

He was a veteran of the civil war and was placed on the pension list by special act through W.D. Vandever. for the past 6 or 7 years he has been making his home with Mrs. Mary Brown and her son Burr Dotson, 3 1/2 miles south of Ava. Long live his memory.

COMMENTS:

1. About 1850s and early 1860's much unrest and many disagreements were developing over slavery. On July 28, 1861, Captain John Sevier Upshaw organized his independent cavalry into the Douglas County Home Guards with headquarters in the little log courthouse at Vera Cruz. This unit consisted of seventy five loyal men. Their names are as follows (Aug. 7, 1861):

Captain John S. Upshaw (and other names)

These men were all listed as Union troops under General Lyons. They were organized to prevent the Rebels from organizing and to disarm those who were disloyal. The Douglas County Home Guards furnished their own horses and arms. They disbanded on October 13, 1861, after their ammunition had Doc appeared in the census in 1880 in Robertson Co, Texas. He died on 12 Aug 1885 at the age of 68 in Robertson Co, Texas. He was buried at Suggs cemetery in Robertson Co, Texas.

DOCUMENTATION & NOTES:

1. 1817: birthdate and birthplace determined from "Soldier's Discharge" statement in his Compiled Service Record, dated 29 May 1847: "was born in Wilkes County, Georgia, is thirty years of age, five ft. 8 1/2 inches high, dark complexion, dark eyes, black hair". Also, his age is given as 33 in the 1850 census. This is substantiated by the fact that "Leroy Upshaw" is found on the 1817 Wilkes County tax digest in Capt. Henry Jossey's Dist., with no land.
2. 1820: Birthdate as given on grave marker, Suggs cemetery, Hearne, Robertson Co, Texas: William Upshaw, Pvt., Co. K, 5 Ala. Inf., Confederate States Army, 1820-1897. (Source: photograph of marker on www.findagrave.com, May 2016; Note: Birth and death dates on this marker are obviously incorrect).
3. 1820 census: location of Leroy Upshaw unknown, but presumed to be in Alabama, where the 1820 census is not extant for most counties. Butler county was created in 1819 from Conecuh & Monroe Cos., Conecuh was created in 1818 from Monroe Co. which was created in 1814, so early Monroe & Conecuh counties should be investigated for all Upshaws. Monroe county lost all probate records in 1832, but other early records, especially deeds and tax, may survive. Leroy Upshaw is not found in the Bureau of Land Management records for Alabama, so he apparently received no land under that office.
4. 1830 census, Butler Co, AL, page 295: (Leroy Upshaw household): 1 male age 10-15 (William, born 1817).

COMMENTS:

1. The origin of the nickname "Doc" is unknown.

2. A query by Laura Upshaw (email: lala@texas.net) on the GenForum "Upshaw" surname site in April 1999 states: Looking for information on William "Doc" Upshaw. I think he may have been born in South Carolina to Leroy & Catherine Upshaw. William married Margaret Eastridge (or Estrage) in Butler Co., Alabama. They had five children ... the only name I know is Minor Hubby, my ggrandfather. William Upshaw died in Robertson Co., Texas in the 1890s (I don't have exact year). He fought in the Civil War in Company "K" of the 5th Alabama Infantry. (I've contacted her on 27 Apr 1999, sent her

RUTH UPSHAW. Was born in the state of Virginia in the year 1834; was united in marriage in the year 1850 to Richard Butler. To this union were born six children, four boys and two girls. All have departed this life except Charles Butler. Her first husband died in 1868. She was again united in marriage to Nelson Martin in 1875. He departed this life in 1878. She again was united in marriage to John H. Overton in 1879. He died in 1893. Aunt Ruth, as she was familiarly known, united with the Primitive Baptist Church in 1864, and has lived a faithful member until her death. She was deprived of attending church for several years on account of being very feeble. She departed this life on the 14th of July, 1922, aged 88 years. The funeral was conducted by Elder Thomas T. France. (Note: Ruth Upshaw was not born in Virginia; see census returns; her first marriage was to "Sinclair" Butler, not "Richard" Butler; Sinclair Butler appears in the 1870 census, so his decease date of 1868 as given here is apparently incorrect).

RESEARCHERS:

1. (1999) from Kathy Stewart <kis@hom.net>: "Pension papers of James Upshaw (Union Civil War), states that James Upshaw of Co. E, 15th Indiana volunteer infantry, of Posey Co., Ind., born in Dade Co., Ga., was married twice, both deceased by 1897 at time of answering pension questionnaire. The first wife's maiden name was Forrester. The only marriages I have, to date, are to (1) Elizabeth Autlew and (2) Matilda Edwards. These I verified in Evansville, Ind., while visiting this summer. I believed the first wife to be my lineage, as a child was born just prior to Matilda showing up some three months after the baby was born in Dec. (what year, where?). So I presumed that Elizabeth died during child birth. Matilda then married James and raised my 4th Great grandfather, Andrew, who was born in 1858; later the two having a son of their own named Walter J. Upshaw, born 1872. James pension papers states that his first wife was a Forrester and that her descent was Creek Indian(!). James apparently married (where?) his third wife Susan Stone, widow of Thomas Stone, in 1908. She received his pension after 1913 when he died (where?).

James Upshaw also lived in Griffin, IN, Nashville, TN, and Scott Co., MO - the latter is where he died, burial site unknown. (Note: I replied to her via email on 9 Sep 1999, attaching my Family Group Sheet).

COMMENTS:

1. Rebecca ("Becca") Bradley may not have been a child of Andrew & Amelia (Upshaw) Bradley, who are only shown with one female child in the 1830 & 1840 censuses, although Becca is shown in their household in 1850.

2. The only marriage record for a "Rebecca Morgan" is in 1844 to William Lankford; there is no marriage record for a Rebecca Bradley in Monroe Co (Note: check for a Rebecca _____ who married a _____ Morgan prior to 1850).

Rebecca "Becca" Bradley and (given name unk) Morgan were married before 1850 in Monroe? Co, Tennessee. (given name unk) Morgan was born circa 1824. He was buried at an unknown cemetery. 1. It is not certain that the "Becca Morgan", age 26, who was in the household of Permelia Bradley in 1850 was her daughter; was Becca's Morgan husband dead at this time?

COMMENTS:

1. Polly is listed in the household of her mother in 1850 without her husband, William B. Mangus, or any of her three children born by that time; had William gone on to Hamilton Co, IL, while she stayed with her mother waiting on him to send for her?
2. Need to check Hamilton Co, IL, estate and cemetery records for this family.

COMMENTS:

1. No grave marker has been located for William Thomas Upshaw in Barbour Co, AL, and does not appear in printed versions of Spring Hill Methodist or in the Upshaw Family Cemetery, near Spring Hill (see UFJ, Vol II, page 87). No grave marker for him is found in www.findagrave.com, May 2017.
2. Some information contributed in 1975 by Mrs. J.H. Mitchell, 404 College Ave., Clemson, SC, which includes the notation that she believes he died circa 1863, possibly in Confederate Army, which needs verification). This is not correct, as Barbour Co, AL, Orphans Record Book 7, page 138, has the bond of Leroy Upshaw as administrator of William T. Upshaw, deceased, dated 21 May 1855 (see UFJ, Vol II, page 89); I believe this may have become confused with a "William T. Upshaw" of Virginia, who died about 1863.
3. No marriage record found for William Thomas Upshaw & Mary Holsey in Warrine Sheppard Hathaway, "Barbour County, Alabama Marriage Licenses 1838-1930" (the author, 1995).

14. 1865, 15 Aug.: Confederate Applications for Presidential pardons, 1865-1867:

Eufaula, Barbour County, Ala. Aug. 15, 1865.

To his Excellency, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States. Sir, Having subscribed the oath of amnesty as prescribed in taces(?), Proclamation of the 29th May 1865 as will appear by the original hereto annexed, I respectfully submit this special application for such clemency as may be extended to me consistently with the facts in my case and the peace and dignity of the United States.

I am a Planter by profession, forty two years old, never was a politician, never held any civil or military office under the so called Confederate States. At the time of the passage of the so called Ordinance of Secession in this state & indeed ever since September 1859 I was in a most precarious state of health and of unsound mind & memory in consequence of a terrible gunshot wound which I had received in the head & face and I have scarcely any recollection of events. I knew nothing about the passage of the Ordinance of Secession & did not vote for members to the Convention. I took no part in the war, though I contributed to the support of the soldiers by money & provisions.

I am excluded from the benefits off the amnesty because I am worth over twenty thousand Dollars ($20,000) valuation of taxable property & for no other reason.

I wish to be henceforth a peaceable and legal citizen of the United States. I did not in arrest (sic?). I did not order or advise the taking of Mt. Vernon Arsenal or Ft. Morgan or aid therein. I have not served on any vigilance committee during the war. No person has been hung or shot by my order for any offence whatever. I have not shot or hung (or orded (sic) therein) any person for any offense whatever. I have not ordered or engaged in hunting with dogs any person supposed to be disloyal to the Confederate States. No proceedings have been instituted against any property under the confiscation act. No property belonging to me is in possession of the United States authorities as abandoned property or otherwise. The Government has not taken possession of any part of property. No proceedings are pending against me in any of the U.S. Courts for treason or conspiracy against the government of the United States.

(signed) LeRoy Upshaw.

Sworn & Subscribed before me this 12th day of Sep. A.D. 1865.

F. Grabenhorst, Capt. Comdg. Det 49th Mo. Vol. Inf.

The State of Alabama, Barbour County.

I, Leroy Upshaw, a citizen of Barbour County, do solemnly swear in the presence of Almighty God that I will henceforth faithfully defend the constitution of the United States and the Union of the States thereunder; & that I will in like manner abide by & faithfully support all laws and proclamations which have been made during the existing rebellion with reference to the emancipation of slaves, so help me God.

(signed) LeRoy Upshaw.

Levi Pierce was born 1810 in South Carolina and is thought to be one of the earliest settlers in the Pine Log Georgia area. He came from Elbert County, Georgia or western South Carolina with James Upshaw and Martin Maxwell, his brother-in-law around 1834-1836. Pierce is listed on the Federal census of Cass County, Georgia, 1840.

Marriage records of Cass/Bartow County show that Levi Pierce married Matilda Upshaw, daughter of James and Lucinda (Ham) Upshaw, 8 December 1836 in Cass County. Matilda was born in Elbert County, Georgia in 1815.

Children born to the marriage and approximate dates of birth are as follows:

Frances Ann, born 1839, George born 1843, Georgia Ann born 1845, Jannette born 1849 and Flora D. born 1852.

Georgia Ann married James M. Dysart, 6 September 1866 in Bartow County, Georgia.

Frances married Alexander C. Say, 24 December 1857 in Cass County. Their daughter, Metallice Neugenia Say, was born in Cass County 26 September 1858. Alexander Say died in Richmond, Virginia military hospital, December 28, 1862. Frances later married Pinckney Brutus Tisdal in Hot Springs County, Arkansas in 1871. It is not known to this writer who George, Janette or Flora D. married.

Levi Pierce was a millwright according to the 1850 Federal Census records. He and his brother-in-law Aulsey Vincent, are given credit for the fine example of craftsmanship that is part of the Pine Log United Methodist Church building, particularly the alter, in a book entitled History of the Pine Log Methodist Church, by Garrison and Mahan. On this church's roster 1859-1863 Levi Pierce is listed as a member; however his membership was removed by letter in November 1862. It is not known what church, if any, that he attached with at that time; Matilda Pierce remained a member of this church, as did Lucinda Upshaw, her mother, and several other members of the Upshaw family.

Levi Pierce's family was enumerated in Bartow county in 1870. At this time, Frances (Pierce) Say and her daughter Metallice Neugenia Say are listed in this home. Sometime after the census was taken Frances (Pierce) Say and her daughter and George Pierce, Frances' brother, moved to Hot Springs County, Arkansas.

Levi Pierce died in 1886. Matilda (Upshaw) Pierce died in 1890. Both are buried in the Pine Log United Methodist Church Cemetery. Their daughter, Georgia Ann, her husband James Dysart and other Dysarts are buried on the Pierce-Dysart family plot, along with Levi and Matilda.

During 1994, no Pierce family members have been located in the Pine Log area, although many descendants of Frances Pierce and Metallice Say live in Arkansas, Texas and Oklahoma. - Submitted by J.C. and Zelda Fisher, 1314 SW 9th St., Cooper, Texas. (J.C. is a great-great grandson of Levi and Matilda Pierce. His grandmother was Metallice Neigenia Say, daughter of Frances Pierce Say and Alexander C. Say).

Mrs. Elizabeth Upshaw, widow of the late John A. Upshaw, died at her home in Cass County, Georgia, 13th February, 1859, aged 33 years, after a short but painful illness.

She joined the M. E. Church in 1855, and so continued in its communion to her death, humbly adorning her profession by a course which characterises the Christian.

Lizzie was emphatically a good woman, innocent, harmless, kind and benevolent - a devoted mother and affectionate sister; modest, retiring and unassuming in her manners and disposition; was loved most by those who knew her best - but death claimed her for his victim in the noon tide of her life, leaving William, Lou, Jackson and Hylenia - four interesting dear orphan children to pass through this sinful world without father or mother, to lean upon, as was left their father, aunt and uncle, when they, too, were small children. May God, who is all in all, be more to them than they have lost in a dear mother.

A short time before she died she asked her aged mother to give her youngest child (Hylenia) to Mr. and Mrs. Price - that they would be to her a father and mother. She raised her hands and praised her Lord and Saviour - said she was happy, and that she loved everybody. We thank the Lord for this, and in Christian meekness bow to this dispensation of our Heavenly Father and praise His holy name for the assurance that our dear departed sister has exchanged the sufferings of this earth for the joys of Heaven, and may the Lord help us to prepare to meet her there.

3. Capt. Samuel C. (Crockett) Upshaw, Counselor at Law. According to Bacon the greatest trust between man and man is the trust of giving counsel, and in the profession of law the most brilliant talents, most extensive knowledge and the strongest sentiments - moral and spiritual and material - are brought into play, and it's power for good or evil is vast and invincible. Capt. Upshaw is an Attorney of far more than ordinary ability, and is in the active practice of his profession at Hillsboro, Texas.

He was born in Little Rock, Arkansas, Jan. 31, 1840, a son of Col. A. M. M. Upshaw, a native of Essex County, Virginia, who moved to middle Tennessee when a young man, from which state he volunteered in the Indian War of 1836, serving against the Seminoles in Florida, after which he was appointed agent for the Chickasaws by Van Buren and assisted in moving this Tribe to the country it now occupies. He remained agent in charge of this Tribe for ten years, at which time he came to Texas, settling in Washington County, which he afterwards represented in the Texas legislature two terms, and was a prominent citizen of the County until his death, which occurred in 1877. His wife was Ann H. Crockett - a native of Williamson County, Tenn., but she is now a resident of Houston, Texas, and has reached the advanced age of 87 years. This lady was his second wife and became the mother of the subject of this sketch.

COMMENTS:

1. (per grand nephew in 1998, Charles Roland Upshaw (email: upshawcr@plu.edu), George Washington Upshaw changed his name to Johnny ("Buddy") Meadows, who also states that "I don't know what Buddy's real name was, as he changed it to Buddy Meadows after riding with Black Bart's gang. He was later Sheriff of Christmas, AZ".

(Editor's note: This last account about "riding with Black Bart's gang" is highly unlikely; George was born in 1872; Charles Earle Bowles (aka "Black Bart") robbed stagecoaches in northern California and southern Oregon from 1875 until 1883, when he was captured and served six years in prison, afterwards retiring from crime. Moreover, Bowles usually acted alone and is not known to have any accomplices in his criminal career. George Upshaw, born 1872, was only eleven years old at the time of Bowles' last robbery in 1883, so it is extremely unlikely that George Upshaw, at age eleven, was an accomplice. Furthermore, George was in the McCullough Co., Texas census, seven years old, in 1880).

2. It may be that George W. Upshaw, born 1872, did not change his name to "Buddy Meadows" at all; no evidence is known for this, so it may be spurious - TOB.
